

A Proclamation
By
Governor Ronnie Musgrove

WHEREAS, citizens who have lived one hundred years are an incredible resource for our society; and

WHEREAS, citizens with longevity and endurance have made contributions throughout their lives as they have triumphed in spirit and perseverance; and

WHEREAS, the Mississippi Department of Human Services, the Division of Aging and Adult Services, the State of Mississippi, and others wish to honor these revered citizens; and

WHEREAS, we celebrate this grand generation's legacy of wisdom:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Ronnie Musgrove, Governor of the State of Mississippi, hereby proclaim Saturday, June 21, 2003, as in the State of Mississippi and encourage all citizens to join in this celebration of a century of contributions.

CENTENARIANS DAY
100 YEARS YOUNG

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Mississippi to be affixed.

DONE in the City of Jackson, June 20, 2003, in the two hundred and twenty-sixth year of the United States of America.

RONNIE MUSGROVE
