

Governor Musgrove statement on leadership for SREB

“Effective leadership is needed in the southern state to achieve progressive goals in areas such as education, economic development and healthcare. It is necessary to provide every opportunity for our citizens to obtain a bright future for themselves and their respective states. With key leaders on every level of government, we are able to provide these opportunities and move the southern states to the forefront of America.”