

A Proclamation
By
Governor Ronnie Musgrove

WHEREAS, Now Today Tomorrow Preparing Great Minds for the Future, located in Jackson, Mississippi and founded by Felicia T. Whittington, was started to reach out to communities to enable them to fulfill the destiny God gave them; and

WHEREAS, Now Today Tomorrow Preparing Great Minds for the Future will hold the Mississippi-Louisiana Faith-Based and Community Initiative Conference in Natchez, Mississippi on May 31, 2003; and

WHEREAS, the purpose of this conference is to provide organizations throughout Mississippi and Louisiana with tools to help improve the quality of life for the people of Mississippi; and

WHEREAS, key presenters at the Mississippi-Louisiana Faith-Based and Community Initiative Conference include: Juliet McCarthy, Director of the USDA Center for Faith-Based and Community Initiatives in Washington, DC, James E. Selmon, Associate Administrator of USDA Rural Housing Services/Rural Development in Washington, DC, and the Reverend Ronnie Crudup of the Mississippi Faith-Based Coalition; and

WHEREAS, the luncheon keynote speaker is Fariest Hill, an international recording artist and motivational speaker from Tampa Bay, Florida; and

WHEREAS, the State of Mississippi is proud of organizations like Now Today Tomorrow that are taking steps to make Mississippi a better place to live, work, and raise a family:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Ronnie Musgrove, Governor of the State of Mississippi, hereby proclaim May 31, 2003, as in the State of Mississippi.

NOW TODAY TOMORROW DAY

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Mississippi to be affixed.

DONE in the City of Jackson, May 30, 2003, in the two hundred and twenty-sixth year of the United States of America.

RONNIE MUSGROVE
GOVERNOR