Campaign contributions have never influenced my public policy.

We are fortunate to have a broad base of support.

We appreciate the nursing homes recognizing our commitment to health care for our seniors.

As I have said before, this special session was about the health care crisis, not about doctors, lawyers, or any other special interests.

One of my goals in medical malpractice was to lessen the plethora of cases by out of state lawyers.

Background I gave him:

House and senate committees this summer agreed on changes for nursing homes, including statute of limitation and medical records.
