

“It’s unfortunate that, after 82 days, the Legislature has been able to craft a budget that uses real numbers and focuses on the right priorities – education, jobs, health care and public safety. I am hopeful that with this extra time, they will be reach these goals.”