

Statement for Sid Salter:

“I am as proud as anyone in this state to have Nissan located here. We worked long and hard to bring in the one of the largest economic development projects in the country. We are bringing in high-quality, good-paying jobs for our people, and I won’t stop those efforts with the Nissan project. I will always be working to improve the economic condition of our state and our people.”