

Dear :

It was a pleasure to see you at the Democratic Governors Association luncheon in Washington. Your support is greatly appreciated.

Great things are happening across our country, despite a national recession and a united war against the terrorist threats so tragically made real on September 11. I'm proud to say that Democratic governors are taking the lead in this effort and the records speak for themselves.

Again, thank you for your support. I look forward to seeing you soon.