

Statement from Governor Musgrove regarding Detroit Auto Show:

“Mississippi is capturing more of the spotlight on the world stage, and the presentation of Nissan’s Mississippi-made vehicles will make our presence even brighter. Our commitment to quality and pride in workmanship is unequalled. With our focus on education and economic development, we’re moving to the next level of competition in the global marketplace.”