

I want to encourage the House and Senate conferees to work quickly toward a compromise on medical malpractice insurance. I'm not supporting either chamber's position; rather, I'm in favor of solving this health care crisis.