RE: Constituent request

I had a call from a woman here in town named Valerie Wilbanks. She is participating in a contest sponsored by MISS103, trying to win a new Jeep. She and others in the contest have had casts put on their arms, and the competition is to have the most famous people sign their casts. Listeners to the station, she said, call in and rate how famous someone is, and the person with the most points wins (or something like that).

Anyway, she wanted to know if she could get a picture made with the governor signing her cast so she can try and win this Jeep. The deadline is December 20.

Thoughts?
