

MEMORANDUM

January 30, 2002

TO: Governor

FROM: John

RE: Mission Mississippi "Governor's Prayer Luncheon"

Dolphus Weary will probably be the one to introduce you. He has asked that you speak for no more than 10 minutes on racial reconciliation and Christian unity, and that you incorporate part of your personal testimony into your remarks. Obviously, I can't write about what you feel in your heart, but I've tried to give some type of outline to use.

Weary also asked that the speech remain non-political and contain any personal anecdotes you'd like to share.
