RE: Gloster meeting with Georgia-Pacific

This meeting will be held with public officials, representatives of Georgia-Pacific and employees. Media is aware of this meeting. It will be similar to the one held in Quitman County after Burlington pulled out of Stonewall.

I'm attaching all the information I have for this meeting.

Boyd and General Berry also felt you should have the most up-to-date information on the National Guard armory in Gloster. In 2001, Detachment 2, 3656th Heavy Maintenance Company was located in Gloster. It recruits both men and women. In one year, the unit is at 100% strength with 61 men and women, and two full-time employees. The mission is to repair and rebuild engines and engine components. Last year, this unit had an economic impact of more than $500,000 in the area.
