

MEMORANDUM

March 22, 2002

TO: Governor

FROM: John

RE: Scottish Highland Games

When you arrive at the Ag Museum, you will be met by Don Clark. He will escort you to the VIP tent prior to the opening ceremony. You will be introduced as an honored guest and asked to make remarks, ending with your proclaiming the opening of the Highland Games.

Following your remarks, you will be joined by the Clan Chief of the Henderson Clan (Mr. Clark didn't have his name) and Richard Bradley, President of the Caledonian Society. Each of you will have a sword, which you will stick into a stone as the formal opening of the Games. I am assured by Mr. Clark that it is not a real stone.
