RE: NPR story on Medicaid

CC: Phillip
Lee Ann

As I mentioned earlier, I spoke this morning with David Molpus from National Public Radio. He is working on a story about Medicaid and the funding issue for states, and would like to interview you for about 15 minutes. The focus on Mississippi will be about where we've been and where we are now. He read or heard your comments in Washington (at NGA) about Medicaid, the need for a Medicaid Commission, funding from the federal government, etc.

He will be coming in around noon Tuesday (April 2) and leaving Friday (April 5). I will work with Jill to set up a time that works best for you.
