

Ever since the passage of the Advantage Mississippi Initiative we have been approached by a number of companies. Discussions with many companies happen on a continual basis.

Anytime we are in discussions with a company or business we sign confidentiality agreements, which prevents us from discussing any information regarding our discussions.

We know that you can understand and appreciate the sensitivity of any project on which we might be working.