

Legislative members from the Meridian delegation join Governor Ronnie Musgrove as he signs Senate Bill 2666. This bill provides funds and resources for the establishment of The Southern Arts and Entertainment Center in Meridian, MS. The purpose of the center is to provide an educational, entertaining and interactive facility to illustrate the unique culture of Mississippi and other Southern states. The center will consist of a conference center, a performing arts theater, an amphitheater and an artist's village.