

I vetoed all K-12 education appropriation bills because the legislature did not budget enough funding for our schools, which is forcing the school districts to go to the people of Mississippi to make up the shortfall through ad valorem taxes. Once again the legislature has not made education a priority.