

A Proclamation
by
Governor Ronnie Musgrove

WHEREAS, by the provisions of Section 121 of the Constitution of the State of Mississippi, the Governor is vested with the power to convene, by public Proclamation, the Legislature in Extraordinary Session whenever, in his judgment, the public interest requires it; and

WHEREAS, it is my judgment that the public interest requires that the Legislature be convened in Extraordinary Session for the consideration of the matters hereinafter stated:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Ronnie Musgrove, Governor of the State of Mississippi, do hereby issue this Proclamation to convene the Legislature in the First Extraordinary Session of 2002, and do designate Friday, June 21, 2002, at 10:00 a.m., as the time, and the State Capitol in the City of Jackson, Mississippi, as the place, in which said Session shall be convened; and do designate as the subjects to be considered at said First Extraordinary Session of 2002, when so convened, the following matters:

1. an Act to induce the location of a major capital economic development project, proposed for Madison County, Mississippi.
2. an Act making an appropriation for the expenses of the legislature for the First Extraordinary Session of 2002.
3. such other matters as may be submitted by the Governor for consideration during such First Extraordinary Session of 2002.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Mississippi to be affixed.

DONE in the City of Jackson, June 19, 2002, in the two hundred and twenty-fifth year of the United States of America.

RONNIE MUSGROVE
GOVERNOR

BY THE GOVERNOR

Eric Clark, Secretary of State
