

“Governor Musgrove has played an integral role as a member of the Executive Committee with the Southern Growth Policies Board, and I look forward to his leadership as chairman,” said South Carolina Governor Jim Hodges. “His experience with technology and economic development will serve him well during his term.”