

A Proclamation
By
Governor Ronnie Musgrove

WHEREAS, Mrs. Kay Dennis taught reading at Myrick Elementary School for one year and went on to teach at Northeast Jones High School near Laurel, Mississippi; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Dennis has taught social studies to approximately 4,500 students during her thirty-one years at Northeast Jones High School; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Dennis served as Co-Sponsor of the Beta Club for twenty years and attended seventeen State Beta Conventions and two nationals, trained twelve teacher candidates, worked tirelessly for two weeks in 1987 after the tornado destroyed Northeast Jones High School preparing temporary classrooms, and attended both basketball and football state championship games; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Dennis will be retiring from the Northeast Jones High School Social Studies Department after 32 years of service in Public Education; and

WHEREAS, as Mrs. Kay Dennis concludes her career as a leader, mentor, educator, and friend, we can be assured that her efforts will forever serve as an inspiration for those who follow in her footsteps, to continue to build bright futures for our children:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Ronnie Musgrove, Governor of the State of Mississippi, hereby proclaim May 30, 2003, as in the State of Mississippi.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Mississippi to be affixed.

DONE in the City of Jackson, May 21, 2003, in the two hundred and twenty-sixth year of the United States of America.

RONNIE MUSGROVE
