TO: GOVERNOR

SUBJECT: INVITATION FROM HARRISON LEWIS TO APPEAR ON HIS WEEKLY RADIO TALK SHOW
DATE 11/28/01
CC: MAYO
SEWELL

---

Harrison Lewis of Meridian called me this morning. You'll remember that he is a big supporter of yours and he met with you during your One-on-One in Meridian last December. He calls me every now and then to let me know what he is doing in the Meridian area.

Mr. Lewis is now hosting a weekly radio talk show on WNBN, 1290 AM, every Saturday afternoon from 4:00-5:00. He has had the show for a few weeks now and he reports that his ratings are increasing every week. He has discussed the anthrax scare, as well as congressional redistricting. Rep. Charles Young and Senator Sampson Jackson were his guests when he discussed redistricting.

Mr. Lewis extended an invitation to you to appear on his show the next time you are in the Meridian area. I told him that I would inform you and our Communications Office of his offer and that we appreciated all of his support and work. Mr. Lewis may be reached at 601-482-6263.
