

Kelly L. Riley serves as a Policy Liaison in the Office of the Governor's Policy and Planning Division. A native of Stuttgart, Arkansas, Kelly graduated from Pass Christian High School. She received her Bachelor of Arts in Political Science from Millsaps College and her Master of Public Policy and Administration from Mississippi State University. Prior to serving in Governor Musgrove's administration, Kelly was an evaluator with Mississippi's Joint Legislative Committee on Performance Evaluation and Expenditure Review (PEER).

Kelly is a member of Operation Shoestring's Board of Directors. She is also very active in her church, Christ United Methodist, where she sings in the sanctuary choir and serves as Chairperson of the Commission on Missions, editor of the choir's monthly newsletter, and a nursery volunteer.

Kelly and her husband, Frank, reside in Madison. In their spare time, they enjoy cooking and traveling.