

“We are disappointed with the Senate’s decision to override my veto of Senate Bill 3123. Their decision will have a negative impact on the State’s correctional facilities, correctional officers and the entire state budget.

Education, not prisons must be our state’s priority. With their action today, the legislature has not placed a priority on education.”