Dear Conference Participant:

Welcome to the 2002 Mississippi Women's Conference – "The Power of One." We are pleased to have you join us for a day of education, enhancement, and professional development.

Since its inception, the response of Mississippi's women to this worthwhile conference has been exceptional. It confirms the significant progress women are making professionally, economically, socially and domestically. Today's conference will continue to address issues that affect women. Topics will include entrepreneurship, time management, self-enhancement, and professional protocol.

We are honored to extend a special welcome to our keynote speakers, Nevada Barr and Linda L. Gates, along with our workshop facilitators and special entertainers. Each of these guests will bring their unique perspective, talents and insight to our conference. We also encourage your personal interaction with these speakers and your fellow participants to ensure a more productive conference.

Enjoy this day that has been designed especially for you. We are confident that you will find today's events valuable and meaningful. Please let us know if we may be of assistance to you today or in the future.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE
