

June 11, 2003

Mrs. Mary Chism
10055 Highway 45 North
Columbus, Mississippi 39705

Dear Mrs. Chism:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Aberdeen School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at Shivers Junor High School. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Ms. Sharon Burnett
30060 Peacly Ferry Road
Aberdeen, Mississippi 39730

Dear Ms. Burnett:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Amory School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at Amory High School. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Ms. Jacqueline Wintruba
86 Wolfe Street
Bay St. Louis, Mississippi 39520

Dear Ms. Wintruba:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Bay St. Louis-Waveland School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at North Bay Elementary. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mrs. Ann Clifton
401 Longshot Road
Shaw, Mississippi 38773

Dear Mrs. Clifton:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Benoit School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at Ray Brooks School. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Ms. Vickie Gryder-Cook
2460 Deming Place
Biloxi, Mississippi 39531

Dear Ms. Gryder-Cook:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Biloxi Public School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at Biloxi Junior High School. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mrs. Teresa McAlister
P.O. Box 1185
Booneville, Mississippi 38829

Dear Mrs. McAlister:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Booneville School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at Anderson Elementary. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mrs. Victoria Wallace
102 West Meadowbrook Drive
Brookhaven, Mississippi 39601

Dear Mrs. Wallace:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Brookhaven School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at Mamie Martin Elementary. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mrs. Gerry Marshall
133 County Road 408
Calhoun, Mississippi 38916

Dear Mrs. Marshall:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Calhoun County School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at Calhoun City Elementary. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mrs. Furlinda Travis
4940 Ridgewood Road, Apt A2
Jackson, Mississippi 39211

Dear Mrs. Travis:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Canton Public School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at Nichols Middle School. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Ms. Donnette Darnell
212 Murphy Avenue
Okolona, Mississippi 38860

Dear Ms. Darnell:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Chickasaw County School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at Houlika Attendance Center. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Ms. Angela Silas
1117 Morgan Street
Cleveland, Mississippi 38732

Dear Ms. Silas:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Cleveland School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at Eastwood Junior High School. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mrs. Barbara Ferguson
112 Newport Circle
Clinton, Mississippi 39056

Dear Mrs. Ferguson:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Clinton Public School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at Clinton High School. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mrs. Annie Covington
4572 Hwy 330
Coffeeville, Mississippi 38922

Dear Mrs. Covington:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Coffeeville School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at Coffeeville High School. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mrs. Frances Robertson
302 Singley Road
Columbia, Mississippi 39429

Dear Mrs. Robertson:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Columbia School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at Columbia High School. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mrs. Judy Herron
192 Covington Road
Columbus, Mississippi 39705

Dear Mrs. Herron:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Columbus Municipal School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at Columbus High School. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Ms. Ena Gustavis
2068 Allen Road
Hazlehurst, Mississippi 39083

Dear Ms. Gustavis:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Copiah County School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at Crystal Springs High School. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mrs. Deborah Lowery
141 Homer Folkes Road
Seminary, Mississippi 39479

Dear Mrs. Lowery:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Covington County School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at Covington County Vo-Tech Complex. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mr. Clayton Marble
10063 Curtis Drive
Olive Branch, Mississippi 38654

Dear Mr. Marble:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected DeSoto County School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at Olive Branch High School. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mr. Eric Bridgett
622 Shelby Boulevard
Shelby, Mississippi 38774

Dear Mr. Bridgett:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Drew School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at Drew High School. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mrs. Sandra Jones
1554 Ringgold Road
Forest, Mississippi 39074

Dear Mrs. Jones:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Forest Municipal School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at Forest Elementary. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mrs. Patrice Lovdahl
66 East Hill Road
Purvis, Mississippi 39475

Dear Mrs. Lovdahl:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Forrest County School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at Rawls Springs Attendance Center. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mrs. Mary Hardy
205 Teresa Drive
Greenville, Mississippi 38701

Dear Mrs. Hardy:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Greenville Public School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year. I also want to congratulate you for being named one of the four finalists for Mississippi's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at Stern Elementary. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on these honors. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Ms. Viola Parnell
1205 Mississippi Avenue
Greenwood, Mississippi 38930

Dear Ms. Parnell:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Greenwood Public School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at Bankston Elementary. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mrs. Susan Williams
4014 Washington Avenue
Gulfport, Mississippi 39507

Dear Mrs. Williams:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Gulfport School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at Bayou View Elementary. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mrs. Joan Breazeale
126 Spence Drive
Pass Christian, Mississippi 39571

Dear Mrs. Breazeale:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Hancock County School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at East Hancock Elementary. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mrs. Rosanne Crockett
104 Tall Pines Drive
Hattiesburg, Mississippi 39402

Dear Mrs. Crockett:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Hattiesburg Public School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at Grace Christian Elementary. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mrs. Debbe Waggener
1422 Bunyard Road
Clinton, Mississippi 39056

Dear Mrs. Waggener:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Hinds County School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at Gary Road Elementary. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mrs. Shiquita Williams-Sutton
222 West Moore Street
Greenville, Mississippi 38701

Dear Mrs. Williams-Sutton:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Hollandale School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at Chambers Middle School. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mr. John Froboese
509B Andrews Street
Lexington, Mississippi 39095

Dear Mr. Froboese:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Holmes County School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at S.V. Marshall High School. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mr. Robert Burdine
Rt. 2 Box 194
Mathiston, Mississippi 39752

Dear Mr. Burdine:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Houston School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at Houston Vocational Center. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mrs. Jessica James
218 Mabelle Street
Indianola, Mississippi 38751

Dear Mrs. James:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Indianola School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at Cassie Pennington Junior High School. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mrs. Bertie Johnson
P.O. Box 433
Hurley, Mississippi 39555

Dear Mrs. Johnson:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Jackson County School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at East Central High School. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mrs. Olivia Burton
109 Navajo Circle
Clinton, Mississippi 39056

Dear Mrs. Burton:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Jackson Public School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at Siwell Middle School. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mrs. Teri Cranford
11 Hickory Point
Laurel, Mississippi 39443

Dear Mrs. Cranford:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Jones County School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at East Jones Elementary. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Ms. Ann Adams
200 North Hill Street, Apt 19-H
Meridian, Mississippi 39305

Dear Ms. Adams:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Kemper County School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at West Kemper Elementary. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mrs. Brandi Burrell
Rt. 4, Box 415
Kosciusko, Mississippi 39090

Dear Mrs. Burrell:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Kosciusko School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at Kosciusko Lower Elementary. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mrs. Wilma Logan
321 CR 204
Abbeville, Mississippi 38601

Dear Mrs. Logan:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Lafayette County School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at Lafayette High School. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Ms. Beth Robertson
200 Yellow Pine Drive
Hattiesburg, Mississippi 39402

Dear Ms. Robertson:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Lamar County School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at Oak Grove Lower Elementary. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mrs. Nancy Cox
36 Huckabee Lane
Laurel, Mississippi 39443

Dear Mrs. Cox:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Laurel School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at Nora Davis Magnet School. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mrs. Cynthia Davis
P.O. Box 682
Monticello, Mississippi 39654

Dear Mrs. Davis:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Lawrence County School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at Monticello Elementary. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mrs. Judy White
10272 CR 1701
Union, Mississippi 39365

Dear Mrs. White:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Leake County School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at South Leake High School. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mrs. Lorie Wigginton
652 CR 811
Saltillo, Mississippi 38866

Dear Mrs. Wigginton:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Lee County School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at Saltillo Elementary. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mrs. Joan Grimes
1968 Highway One South
Greenville, Mississippi 38701

Dear Mrs. Grimes:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Leland School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at Leland High School. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mrs. Nancy Butler
2435 Allen Road SE
Brookhaven, Mississippi 39601

Dear Mrs. Butler:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Lincoln County School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at Loyd Star School. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mrs. Anna McIntyre
17280 Magnolia Drive
Pass Christian, Mississippi 39571

Dear Mrs. McIntyre:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Long Beach School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at Long Beach High School. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mrs. Mary Ballew
204 Northwood Drive
Louisville, Mississippi 39339

Dear Mrs. Ballew:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Louisville Municipal School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at Louisville High School. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mrs. Sandra Murphy
205 Jim Wells Drive
Caledonia, Mississippi 39740

Dear Mrs. Murphy:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Lowndes County School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at Caledonia Elementary. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Miss Stephanie Morris
322 East Dinkins Street
Canton, Mississippi 39046

Dear Miss Morris:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Madison County School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at Northeast Madison Middle School. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mrs. Amie Powell
1199 Highway 587
Foxworth, Mississippi 39483

Dear Mrs. Powell:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Marion County School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at West Marion Elementary. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mrs. Judy Brewer
9139 Moss Point Drive
Southaven, Mississippi 38671

Dear Mrs. Brewer:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Marshall County School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at Henry Junior High School. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mrs. Gloria Stubbs
4031 Magnolia-Pisgah Road
Summit, Mississippi 39666

Dear Mrs. Stubbs:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected McComb Separate School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at Denman Junior High School. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Ms. Robin Hall
3926 Ashland Avenue
Meridian, Mississippi 39305

Dear Ms. Hall:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Meridian Separate School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at Magnolia Middle School. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mrs. Kathy Murray
5312 Lakeview Drive
Moss Point, Mississippi 39563

Dear Mrs. Murray:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Moss Point School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at Magnolia Junior School. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mrs. Aquetta Butler
23 Davis Court
Natchez, Mississippi 39120

Dear Mrs. Butler:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Natchez-Public School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at McLaurin Elementary. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mrs. Dawn Ausbon
411 Fifth Street South
Amory, Mississippi 38821

Dear Mrs. Ausbon:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Nettleton School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at Nettleton Elementary. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mrs. Sandra McCollum
1270 State Highway 15 North
Blue Mountain, Mississippi 38610

Dear Mrs. McCollum:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected New Albany Public School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at New Albany Elementary. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mrs. Ethel Woodley
P.O. Box 464
Mound Bayou, Mississippi

Dear Mrs. Woodley:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected North Bolivar School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at Broad Street High School. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mrs. Sylvia Galle
9120 Dixie Street
Ocean Springs, Mississippi 39564

Dear Mrs. Galle:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Ocean Springs School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at Ocean Springs Middle School. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mrs. Beth Fitts
115 Caroline Circle
Oxford, Mississippi 38655

Dear Mrs. Fitts:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Oxford School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year. I also want to congratulate you for being named one of the four finalists for Mississippi's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at Oxford High School. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on these honors. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mrs. Linda Moore
2303 Pascagoula Street
Pascagoula, Mississippi 39567

Dear Mrs. Moore:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Pascagoula Municipal. Separate School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at College Park Elementary. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Ms. Mary Ladner
105 Harry Street
Bay St. Louis, Mississippi 39520

Dear Ms. Ladner:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Pass Christian Public School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at DeLisle Elementary. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mrs. Judy Young
2362 Milam Street
Pearl, Mississippi 39208

Dear Mrs. Young:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Pearl Public School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at Pearl Upper Elementary. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Ms. Dorothy Stockstill
1007 Union School Road
Picayune, Mississippi 39466

Dear Ms. Stockstill:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Pearl River County School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at Pearl River Central Elementary. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mr. John Watts
2000 Oak Grove Road, Apt #705 Greentree
Hattiesburg, Mississippi 39402

Dear Mr. Watts:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Perry County School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year. I also want to congratulate you for being named one of the four finalists for Mississippi's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at Perry Central High School. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on these honors. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mrs. Sue Turner
211 Skyland Terrace
Petal, Mississippi 39465

Dear Mrs. Turner:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Petal School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at W. L. Smith Elementary. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mrs. Cathie Ferguson
185 Ferguson Road
Pontotoc, Mississippi 38863

Dear Mrs. Ferguson:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Pontotoc City School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at Pontotoc Elementary. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mr. Kevin Waldrop
551 Topsy Road
Randolph, Mississippi 38864

Dear Mr. Waldrop:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Pontotoc County School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at South Pontotoc High School. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mr. Stephen Seal
112 J.M. Howard
Poplarville, Mississippi 39470

Dear Mr. Seal:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Poplarville Special Municipal School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at Poplarville High School. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mr. Rodney Easley
879 Highway 4 East
Booneville, Mississippi 388929

Dear Mr. Easley:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Prentiss County School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at New Site High School. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mrs. Sharon Myrick
327 Pinewood Lane
Ridgeland, Mississippi 39157

Dear Mrs. Myrick:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Rankin County School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at Northwest Rankin Elementary. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mrs. Iris King
122 Village Avenue
Forest, Mississippi 39074

Dear Mrs. King:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Scott County School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at Lake Middle School. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mrs. Beth Bailey
2357 Country Club Road
Senatobia, Mississippi 38668

Dear Mrs. Bailey:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Senatobia Municipal School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at Senatobia High School. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mrs. Barbara Henry
1201 North Street
Cleveland, Mississippi 38732

Dear Mrs. Henry:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Shaw School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at McEvans Elementary. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mrs. Karon McIntosh
P.O. Box 41
Mendenhall, Mississippi 39114

Dear Mrs. McIntosh:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Simpson County School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at Magee Elementary. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mrs. Patty Sylvest
4204 Middle Glading Road
Magnolia, Mississippi 39652

Dear Mrs. Sylvest:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected South Pike School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at South Pike Middle School. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mr. Fred Smith
68 County Road 7461
Baldwyn, Mississippi 38824

Dear Mr. Smith:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected South Tippah School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at Ripley High School. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mr. Andrew Lark
1458 Old West Point Road
Starkville, Mississippi 39759

Dear Mr. Lark:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Starkville School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year and Mississippi's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by the Department of Education. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at Starkville High School.

I hope the upcoming year will provide many memorable experiences and opportunities for you. Please do not hesitate to call on my office if we may be of assistance to you.

Congratulations, again, on these honors. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mrs. Charlis Trotter
126 Hunter Road
Drew, Mississippi 38737

Dear Mrs. Trotter:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Sunflower County School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at Ruleville Central High School. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mrs. Cindy Wilbanks
3142 North Harper Road
Corinth, Mississippi 38834

Dear Mrs. Wilbanks:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Tishomingo County School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at Iuka Elementary. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mrs. Sherry Davis
2174 Buse Street
Tupelo, Mississippi 39904

Dear Mrs. Davis:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Tupelo Public School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at Tupelo Middle School. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mrs. Beverly Maynard
1106 National Street
Vicksburg, Mississippi 39180

Dear Mrs. Maynard:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Vicksburg-Warren School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at Beechwood Elementary. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mrs. Alice Jones
22 Hedgewood Drive
Waynesboro, Mississippi 39367

Dear Mrs. Jones:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Wayne County School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at Waynesboro Elementary. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mrs. Carol Scott
P.O. Box 85
Bay Springs, Mississippi 39422

Dear Mrs. Scott:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected West Jasper Consolidated School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at Bay Springs Elementary. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mrs. Faith West
P.O. Box 95
Prairie, Mississippi 39756

Dear Mrs. West:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected West Point School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at Fifth Street Junior High. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mrs. Christye VanHorn
539 Sawyer Road
Winona, Mississippi 38967

Dear Mrs. VanHorn:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Winona Public School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at Winona Vo-Tech Center. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mr. David Starling
924 Prentiss Avenue
Yazoo City, Mississippi 39194

Dear Mr. Starling:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Yazoo City Municipal School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at Yazoo City Alternative Learning Center. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

June 11, 2003

Mrs. Sharon McNeal
400 Green Road
Yazoo City, Mississippi 39194-9540

Dear Mrs. McNeal:

On behalf of the 2.8 million citizens of Mississippi, please accept this letter of congratulations for your being selected Yazoo County School District's 2003 Teacher of the Year.

It was a pleasure to celebrate this special occasion with you on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion. Your being named Teacher of the Year is the highest honor that is conveyed upon a teacher by a local school district. You are positively influencing the lives of your students at Yazoo County High School. Your dedication to your profession and your personal interest in your students' well being are only a few of the qualities that earned you this recognition.

Congratulations, again, on this honor. Thank you for your support of and dedication to education in Mississippi. I wish you well in all of your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr