Munira with the NAGB staff left me voicemail earlier today inquiring as to our interest in hosting a NAGB meeting here in Mississippi either in March or August of 2004. She wanted to know which month would work best for us, as well as where in Mississippi we would want to host the meeting. She wasn't sure if we would want to do it here in Jackson or possibly on the Gulf Coast.

I've left her voicemail indicating that the August 2004 board meeting would work better for us due to the legislative session in March. I told her I'd check with you as to your preference of where.

Certainly, I think the Hilton here in Jackson would be nice. You could host a dinner at the mansion that Friday evening for the Board. The Hilton also has an airport shuttle and is close to the mall. Area attractions would include the capitol, museums, and Vicksburg Battlefield.

If you want to host the meeting on the Coast, I would recommend the Beau Rivage as the site. The Coast is accessible via commercial flights and has tourist attractions if Board members wanted to bring their families

Munira needs to know your preference in order to start looking into hotels. Please indicate your preference:

Thanks!
