
OFFICE OF GOVERNOR RONNIE MUSGROVE
INTEROFFICE MEMORANDUM

TO: GOVERNOR
FROM: RILEY
SUBJECT: NAGB AND NBPTS: YOU ARE STILL ELIGIBLE TO SERVE
DATE 12/12/03
CC: FILE

Munira with the NAGB staff and Sally Mernissi with the NBPTS staff have both called to say that Charles Smith, NAGB Executive Director, and Joe Aguerrebere, NBPTS President, have received your letters and that you are still eligible to serve on both boards.

According to Munira, your NAGB term is through 2004 and is not dependant upon your being Governor. NAGB's 2004 meeting dates and tentative locations are as follows:

March 4-6 (Philadelphia)
May 13 – 15 (Denver)
August 5 – 7 (Washington)
November 18 – 20 (TBD)

Munira said to remind you that your travel expenses would be covered by NAGB.

According to Sally Mernissi at NBPTS, you were re-elected in October to another 3-year term on the board and this term is not dependant upon your being Governor. NBPTS's 2004 meeting dates and tentative locations are as follows:

February 20-22 (Arlington, VA)
June 18 – 20 (TBD)
October 15 – 17 (TBD)

As with NAGB, NBPTS covers your travel expenses.

Neither of the organizations are accepting your letters as resignation letters until I have feedback from you on the above.

Of course this is your decision, but should you feel that you would like to continue to serve on one or both of the above, I would certainly recommend it. They both have a strong national reputation, especially NAGB, which could prove beneficial for any future endeavors you might seek. It also sends a strong message as to your qualifications to serve on each outside of simply being a governor. Please advise:

I wish to _____ OR do not wish to _____ continue to serve on NAGB.

I wish to _____ OR do not wish to _____ continue to serve on NBPTS.

