This memo is to let you know that Marcia Sprague, legal counsel with the USDE, left me voicemail yesterday stating that she is reviewing your financial disclosure statement for conflict of interest purposes and that she needs some additional information. She is sending a letter as to the specifics. She said that she will have to have this information in order for you to attend the March 7 – 8 NAGB meeting.

I have left her voicemail with my pager number. Sprague is out of the office today. I will find out what she needs and let you know ASAP.
