Jim Clinton emailed me the 5 attached invitations and requested your signature on them. The 5 letters invite:

1. President Carter to give a keynote address
2. Senator John Glenn to give a keynote address (NOTE: I had to reduce the text to a 11-point font for the letter to fit on one page.)
3. Governor Winter to participate in a town meeting discussion
4. Susan Berresford of the Ford Foundation to be a keynote speaker
5. Dr. Sara Meléndez of the Independent Sector to be a keynote speaker

Please sign the attached 5 letters of invitation. I'll mail the invitations and make the appropriate copies for Jim Clinton. Thanks!

SGPB has forwarded the attached invitations to the following for next June's SGPB annual conference:

- Dolphus Weary to participate in the "Building Diverse Leadership" panel Monday morning
- Ambassador Andrew Young to give a keynote address at lunch Monday; and,
- James Ukrop to speak on regional leadership Monday afternoon. Governor Warner has highly recommended Ukrop to SGPB.

Please sign the attached 3 invitations or mark any changes that you want made. I'll mail the invitations and make the appropriate copies for Jim Clinton. Thanks!

SGPB has requested your approval of inviting General Henry Hugh Shelton to serve as luncheon keynote speaker on Monday, June 2nd, at the Annual Meeting in Biloxi

General Shelton was Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff under President Clinton and has started a major leadership initiative in NC. He is very interested in leadership in the new economy, as well as in building youth leadership. Governor Easley's office has nominated General Shelton's leadership initiative as one of the state's potential "Innovators." People have told SGPB that General Shelton is "inspirational, motivational, and commanding" as a speaker. Linda Hoke at SGPB thinks that , given our current situation in world affairs, General Shelton's background would be of great interest to people.

I think this is a good idea. General Shelton's background should entice the Coast press to cover the meeting on Monday, as well as during the opening on Sunday.

May I inform Linda at SGPB that it is okay to invite General Shelton to serve as keynote?
