Angie Dvorak asked that I share the following Mississippians' names with you as they will be serving as panelists on the "It's a Wireless, Wireless World" panel discussion at next week's Southern Technology Council meeting. You will not be present for this panel discussion, but Angie wanted to let you know of their involvement:

1. William Mounger, Chairman of TeleCorps PCS, Inc., the largest affiliate of AT&T Wireless PCS
2. Jai Bhagat, Vice Chairman of GulfSouth Capital and CEO and Vice Chairman of SkyTel prior to SkyTel's merger with WorldCom
3. Stephen Johnston, Vice President of Corporate Development at SmartSynch, Inc. (He was recently responsible for raising $23 million in venture capital funding, the largest amount of venture capital funding raised in Mississippi.)
4. Edward Yelverton, Vice President of Consulting Services for 121 Macro

I have detailed biographies for each if you would be interested in seeing them.
