

January 21, 2003

Sondra Adams
1180 One White Oak Ln
Perkinston, MS 39573-3675

Dear Sondra Adams:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Pamela Akins
Po Box 271
Blue Mountain, MS 38610-0271

Dear Pamela Akins:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Linda Alfonso
1615 18th Ave
Gulfport, MS 39501-2131

Dear Linda Alfonso:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Chris Allen
220 West Lakeview Drive
Clinton, MS 39056-4436

Dear Chris Allen:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Tammy Allred
805 Mckinley Ave
Pascagoula, MS 39567-6434

Dear Tammy Allred:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Tonya Anderson
711 Lake Harbour Dr., #1154
Ridgeland, MS 39157-4309

Dear Tonya Anderson:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Shelia Applewhite
217 Mabelle St
Indianola, MS 38751-3499

Dear Shelia Applewhite:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Roxanna Arcement
512 Brookstone Circle
Madison, MS 39110

Dear Roxanna Arcement:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Janet Aube
1336 Guyton Cir
West Point, MS 39773-4106

Dear Janet Aube:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Linda Austin
134 Still Waters Drive
Tupelo, MS 38801-6225

Dear Linda Austin:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Susan Baer
1920 Bob White Dr
Tupelo, MS 38801-6150

Dear Susan Baer:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

June Barnett
901 Poplar Rd
Starkville, MS 39759-3620

Dear June Barnett:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Lana Bass
1405 Wesleyan St
Gautier, MS 39553-7448

Dear Lana Bass:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Penny Bates
13980 Road 339
Philadelphia, MS 39350-7113

Dear Penny Bates:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Carol Bates
630 Park Dr
Oxford, MS 38655-2416

Dear Carol Bates:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Kermit Baumgartner
290 Pecan Creek Dr
Madison, MS 39110-8716

Dear Kermit Baumgartner:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Yvette Baxley
1380 Orchard Wood Rd
Terry, MS 39170-9350

Dear Yvette Baxley:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Gloria Baylor
1329 28th Ave
Meridian, MS 39301-3812

Dear Gloria Baylor:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Helen Beamon
102 Kentwood Ln
Indianola, MS 38751-3731

Dear Helen Beamon:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Dianne Bean
810 Belmont Dr
Columbus, MS 39702-4326

Dear Dianne Bean:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Margaret Beard
1825 Old Highway 35 N
Columbia, MS 39429-9031

Dear Margaret Beard:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Lauren Bearden
2206 Bluecutt Road
Columbus, MS 39705-1304

Dear Lauren Bearden:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Sandra Beasley
Po Box 820
Collins, MS 39428-0820

Dear Sandra Beasley:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Carrie Bell
Po Box 51
Pace, MS 38764-0051

Dear Carrie Bell:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Lee Benoit
405 Choctaw Dr
Oxford, MS 38655-2715

Dear Lee Benoit:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Cynthia Berry
Rr 3 Box 152
Mathiston, MS 39752-9606

Dear Cynthia Berry:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Paula Bilbo
P O Box 421
Ellisville, MS 39437

Dear Paula Bilbo:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Pamela Black
3618 Highway 4 W
Sarah, MS 38665-3118

Dear Pamela Black:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Shelley Bock
100 Oakapple Ct
Starkville, MS 39759-4308

Dear Shelley Bock:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Cheryl Boggan
339 Country Estates Rd
Florence, MS 39073-9548

Dear Cheryl Boggan:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Elizabeth Bounds
1480 Lone Oak Dr
West Point, MS 39773-8837

Dear Elizabeth Bounds:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Stephanie Bowlin
1303 Park St
Mccomb, MS 39648-2125

Dear Stephanie Bowlin:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Debra Breland
6199 Beaver Dam Rd
Lucedale, MS 39452-5180

Dear Debra Breland:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Jacqueline Brewer
387 Dogwood Blvd
Columbus, MS 39705-0347

Dear Jacqueline Brewer:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Margaret Broussard
7209 Malibar Ln
Boloxi, MS 39532-3827

Dear Margaret Broussard:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Joy Brown
1230 Wellington Lane
Ocean Springs, MS 39564

Dear Joy Brown:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Bonnie Brown
1500 Darden Rd
Jackson, MS 39213-9524

Dear Bonnie Brown:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Betty Bruce
Rr 2 Box 426a
Ackerman, MS 39735-9464

Dear Betty Bruce:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Lady Bruce 628 Bambo St
Diamondhead, MS 39525-3920

Dear Lady Bruce:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Angela Brunini
200 Glenwood Drive
Madison, MS 39110

Dear Angela Brunini:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Patricia Buckner
3212 Grouper Rd
Gautier, MS 39553-6434

Dear Patricia Buckner:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Claudia Buford 2817 Davis Rd
Terry, MS 39170-8607

Dear Claudia Buford:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Selena Burge
974 Union School Rd
Picayune, MS 39466-4996

Dear Selena Burge:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Sharon Burnett
30060 Peacely Ferry Rd
Aberdeen, MS 39730-9732

Dear Sharon Burnett:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Jodie Burnette
109 Eastwood Drive
Tupelo, MS 38804-5904

Dear Jodie Burnette:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Suzanne Burns
259 Greensview Dr
Brandon, MS 39047-7662

Dear Suzanne Burns:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Leigh Butler
136 Rollingwood Dr
Jackson, MS 39211-4716

Dear Leigh Butler:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Dianbe Butler
115 Sassafras Ln
Florence, MS 39073-9768

Dear Dianbe Butler:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Marilyn Butts
121 Warren St
Pontotoc, MS 38863-1511

Dear Marilyn Butts:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Sara Cain
123 Armory Dr., PO Box 475
Taylorsville, MS 39168-0475

Dear Sara Cain:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Diane Campbell
210 Lincoln Grn. E
Starkville, MS 39759-3842

Dear Diane Campbell:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Cynthia Carpenter
3617 Miles Ln
Ocean Springs, MS 39564-1213

Dear Cynthia Carpenter:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Nancy Carroll
604 Cayten St
Picayune, MS 39466-2630

Dear Nancy Carroll:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Anita Carroll
5112 Oakwood Ln
Ocean Springs, MS 39564-8671

Dear Anita Carroll:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Pamela Chunn Gomillion
3455 Highway 18
Brandon, MS 39042-9037

Dear Pamela Chunn Gomillion:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Choyce Cochran
2519 Ridgewood Rd
Ocean Springs, MS 39564-4216

Dear Choyce Cochran:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Marlene Cole
98 Country Heritage Rd
Poplarville, MS 39470-0821

Dear Marlene Cole:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Hazel Coleman
Po Box 20889
Jackson, MS 39289-1889

Dear Hazel Coleman:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Mary Coleman
715 Rice Rd., #10C
Ridgeland, MS 39157-3008

Dear Mary Coleman:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Teresa Collins
888 Highway 2
Corinth, MS 38834-8333

Dear Teresa Collins:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Elizabeth Cowart
18 William Holmes Rd
Tylertown, MS 39667-6125

Dear Elizabeth Cowart:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Bettie Cox
306 Kensington Dr
Hattiesburg, MS 39402-1938

Dear Bettie Cox:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Jennifer Craft
1140 Scr 77
Raleigh, MS 39153

Dear Jennifer Craft:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Sandra Crapo
108 Pine Drive
Ocean Springs, MS 39564-2249

Dear Sandra Crapo:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Kathi Daniel
3293 Sandy Bluff Dr
Biloxi, MS 39532-9063

Dear Kathi Daniel:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Jamie Davidson
1020 7th St N
Columbus, MS 39701-3408

Dear Jamie Davidson:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Cheryl Davis
1115 N Liberty Street Ext
Canton, MS 39046-3143

Dear Cheryl Davis:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Elizabeth Davis
2357 Long Creek Rd
Meridian, MS 39301-7566

Dear Elizabeth Davis:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Sherry Davis
2174 Buse St
Tupelo, MS 38804-5160

Dear Sherry Davis:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Brenda Davis
4403 Childress Dr
Jackson, MS 39206-5908

Dear Brenda Davis:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Debra Dean
209 Greenwood Place
Hattiesburg, MS 39402

Dear Debra Dean:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Joyce Deer
38 Leaf Ln
Hattiesburg, MS 39402-9549

Dear Joyce Deer:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Susan Denyer
106 Shady Oaks Ln
Ocean Springs, MS 39564-5506

Dear Susan Denyer:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Doris Devine
5532 Queen Josephine Ln
Jackson, MS 39209-2139

Dear Doris Devine:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Robin Dibble
2729 Highway 12 W
Starkville, MS 39759-8183

Dear Robin Dibble:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Joanna Dilioglou
5720 Orchardview Dr
Jackson, MS 39211-3222

Dear Joanna Dilioglou:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Sherry Donald 603 Audubon Ln
Oxford, MS 38655-2403

Dear Sherry Donald:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Stacey Donaldson
Rr 1 Box 222d
Carson, MS 39427-9771

Dear Stacey Donaldson:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Jamye Doty
Po Box 514
Boyle, MS 38730-0514

Dear Jamye Doty:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Cathy Douglas 11401 Hazel Bounds Rd
Vanceleave, MS 39565-8434

Dear Cathy Douglas:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Marilyn Dow-Harris
P O Box 3453
Brookhaven, MS 39603-7453

Dear Marilyn Dow-Harris:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Dana Downs-Horton
Po Box 71
Ripley, MS 38663-0071

Dear Dana Downs-Horton:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Kathleen Dudenbostel
18 Pecan Dr
Long Beach, MS 39560-3829

Dear Kathleen Dudenbostel:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Arlene Dukes
970 Anniston Ave
Gulfport, MS 39507-2731

Dear Arlene Dukes:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Kenna Elbin
1409 Lagrange Drive
Gautier, MS 39553

Dear Kenna Elbin:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Michelle Endsley
325 Millcreek Dr
Brandon, MS 39047-9001

Dear Michelle Endsley:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Linda Eyrich
222 Klondyke Rd
Long Beach, MS 39560-4632

Dear Linda Eyrich:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Bonnie Feig
100 Dunbrook Dr
Starkville, MS 39759-4110

Dear Bonnie Feig:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Teresa Fernandez
6721 Washington Ave., #11K
Ocean Springs, MS 39564-2140

Dear Teresa Fernandez:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Julie Ferrell
18 Par Four Dr
Purvis, MS 39475-3038

Dear Julie Ferrell:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Mary Fitzgerald
902 Saratoga Dr
Long Beach, MS 39560-2633

Dear Mary Fitzgerald:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Mildred Ford
110 Azalea Dr
Columbus, MS 39705-1789

Dear Mildred Ford:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Barbara Foster
Po Box 2201y
Collins, MS 39428-2201

Dear Barbara Foster:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Jonnie Fouche
760 Woodhill Rd
Jackson, MS 39206-2303

Dear Jonnie Fouche:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Bettie Freeman
845 Lower Myrick Rd
Laurel, MS 39443-9769

Dear Bettie Freeman:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Martha Friend
109 Edgewood Dr
Starkville, MS 39759-2310

Dear Martha Friend:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Carol Frizzell
600 W. Georgetown St., PO Box 471
Crystal Springs, MS 39059-0471

Dear Carol Frizzell:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Sherry Garmon
203 Brookwood Dr
Vicksburg, MS 39183-1623

Dear Sherry Garmon:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Tania Garrard
10306 Cypress Knee Dr
Olive Branch, MS 38654-9134

Dear Tania Garrard:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Kelly Garriga
6026 Daugherty Rd
Long Beach, MS 39560-2653

Dear Kelly Garriga:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Barbara Garrigues
12354 Lambrecht Rd
Gulfport, MS 39503-7734

Dear Barbara Garrigues:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Etta Gentry
6223 Riverbirch Rd
Walls, MS 38680-9460

Dear Etta Gentry:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Sandra George
2049 Montfort Rd
Starkville, MS 39759-8073

Dear Sandra George:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Ange Gibson
3802 Magnolia St
Pascagoula, MS 39567-2115

Dear Ange Gibson:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Brian Gillentine
34 Max Ln
Pontotoc, MS 38863-9189

Dear Brian Gillentine:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Patsy Gilmore
Po Box 61
Florence, MS 39073-0061

Dear Patsy Gilmore:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Janice Godbold
2150 Perry Rd
Grenada, MS 38901-9054

Dear Janice Godbold:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Janice Godfrey
229 Clark Farms Rd
Madison, MS 39110-8115

Dear Janice Godfrey:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Vicky Goolsby
500 Eastside Cv
Brandon, MS 39047-7793

Dear Vicky Goolsby:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Merril Goolsby
1935 Kornman Dr
Biloxi, MS 39532-2001

Dear Merrill Goolsby:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Cheryl Goudelock
102 Two Oak Pl
Magee, MS 39111-8871

Dear Cheryl Goudelock:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Dena Gray
2526 Scales Rd
Morton, MS 39117-8673

Dear Dena Gray:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Peggy Green
240 Timber Lane Dr
Oxford, MS 38655-5850

Dear Peggy Green:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Cheryl Gruich
410 Lameuse St
Biloxi, MS 39530-2208

Dear Cheryl Gruich:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Catherine Haffey
708b Wicklow Pl
Ridgeland, MS 39157-1236

Dear Catherine Haffey:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Janice Hamilton
2280 Douglastown Rd
Maben, MS 39750-9764

Dear Janice Hamilton:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Davy Hammons
2269 Scr 128
Raleigh, MS 39153-5217

Dear Davy Hammons:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Linda Hancock
87 Timberlane Dr
Picayune, MS 39466-7665

Dear Linda Hancock:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Janice Hansen
18 Scott Station Cv
Long Beach, MS 39560-3613

Dear Janice Hansen:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Olga Hanson
201 Timberlake Dr., #125
Brandon, MS 39047-6263

Dear Olga Hanson:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Polly Hare
143 Wayne Hare Rd
Lucedale, MS 39452-4371

Dear Polly Hare:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Debbie Harmon
104 Metts Cove
Houston, MS 38851-2704

Dear Debbie Harmon:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Shirley Harrison
62 County Road 462
Pontotoc, MS 38863-9021

Dear Shirley Harrison:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

April Harwell
411 Saddle Brook St
Pearl, MS 39208-6682

Dear April Harwell:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Sherry Hatcher
5276 Blind Brown Rd
Bailey, MS 39320-9702

Dear Sherry Hatcher:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Dawn Hayden
207 Shenandoah Rd
Brandon, MS 39047-6715

Dear Dawn Hayden:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Kenneth Hazlewood
09 Private Road 4063
Oxford, MS 38655-6810

Dear Kenneth Hazlewood:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Wynona Herchenhahn
223 Scott Dr
Forest, MS 39074-3020

Dear Wynona Herchenhahn:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Janet Herren
5041 Logan St
Bay Saint Louis, MS 39520-8734

Dear Janet Herren:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Julianne Herrington
11708b Pine Grove Rd
Collinsville, MS 39325-9365

Dear Julianne Herrington:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Frances Hicks
10361 Road 2608
Philadelphia, MS 39350-4176

Dear Frances Hicks:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Rita Hill
131 Rita Dr
Pontotoc, MS 38863-1549

Dear Rita Hill:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Lisa Hodges
15049 Dawnland Dr
Gulfport, MS 39503-9031

Dear Lisa Hodges:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Judy Hogland
16 Sunny Wood Lane
Corinth, MS 38834-5335

Dear Judy Hogland:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Patsy Holbrook
1309 Marquette St
Tupelo, MS 38801-2437

Dear Patsy Holbrook:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Lillian Hollins
Po Box 397
Webb, MS 38966-0397

Dear Lillian Hollins:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Christie Holly
3 County Road 281
Iuka, MS 38852-8249

Dear Christie Holly:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Susan Honeycutt
88 Country Ridge Rd
Grenada, MS 38901-9479

Dear Susan Honeycutt:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Cynthia Howard
106 Pecan Park Dr
Ocean Springs, MS 39564-5517

Dear Cynthia Howard:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Barbara Howell
10212 Highway 382
Aberdeen, MS 39730-9439

Dear Barbara Howell:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Cynthia Howle
92 Pam St
Oxford, MS 38655-5628

Dear Cynthia Howle:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Ladonna Hutchinson
111 Mauldin Ln
Pontotoc, MS 38863-1544

Dear Ladonna Hutchinson:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Pamela Ivey
511 Bowie Dr
Oxford, MS 38655-8351

Dear Pamela Ivey:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Sandra Jackson
205 Nunki Trl
Tupelo, MS 38804-8584

Dear Sandra Jackson:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Melanie Jacobs
4312 Melvin Rd
Biloxi, MS 39532-9478

Dear Melanie Jacobs:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Shelly Jensen
335 Old Corinth Rd. #15
Petal, MS 39465

Dear Shelly Jensen:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Martha Johnson
310 Gates Ave
Long Beach, MS 39560-4816

Dear Martha Johnson:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Shanieca Johnson
Po Box 68651
Jackson, MS 39286-8651

Dear Shanieca Johnson:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Maria Johnson
854 Eagle Eyrie Dr
Biloxi, MS 39532-4646

Dear Maria Johnson:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Mary Ann Johnson
607 County Road 400
Corinth, MS 38834-9019

Dear Mary Ann Johnson:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Laurie Johnston
11881 River Estates Cir
Biloxi, MS 39532-8603

Dear Laurie Johnston:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Janet Jones
742 Long Street
Southaven, MS 38672

Dear Janet Jones:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Dorothy Juneau
5093 Gibson Rd
Mccomb, MS 39648-9035

Dear Dorothy Juneau:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Sherry Kaldon
396 Pecan Cir
Brandon, MS 39042-7402

Dear Sherry Kaldon:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Cindy Kasper
3800 43rd St
Meridian, MS 39305-3130

Dear Cindy Kasper:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Lagatha Kay
419 Morning Star Rd
Soso, MS 39480-5125

Dear Lagatha Kay:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Helen Kennard
1653 Steadman Ln
Starkville, MS 39759-9146

Dear Helen Kennard:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Otha Keys
121 Fox Run Dr
Hattiesburg, MS 39402-1033

Dear Otha Keys:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Martha Kidd
4135 Highway 15 N
Laurel, MS 39440-1069

Dear Martha Kidd:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Ellen Krynen
27 Golf view Dr
Pass Christian, MS 39571-2045

Dear Ellen Krynen:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Carol Lacy
926 Singley Ave
Gulfport, MS 39507-3324

Dear Carol Lacy:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Lela Ladner
308 Swan Dr
Brandon, MS 39047-6729

Dear Lela Ladner:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Jane Lamb
2178 Longfellow Rd
Bay Saint Louis, MS 39520-8685

Dear Jane Lamb:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Nancy Lambert
110 County Road 255
Glen, MS 38846-9735

Dear Nancy Lambert:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Lisa Lansdale
3900 Eagle Cv
Oxford, MS 38655-5707

Dear Lisa Lansdale:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Eva Lee
6221 Jimmy Smith Rd
Bailey, MS 39320-9003

Dear Eva Lee:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Wanda Lee
1814 Shivers Rd
Pinola, MS 39149-3865

Dear Wanda Lee:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Alice Lee
Po Box 133
Newhebron, MS 39140-0133

Dear Alice Lee:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Brit Lerstein
1301 Spruce St
Ocean Springs, MS 39564-8906

Dear Brit Lerstein:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Deborah Lewis Welford
5140 Highway 63 N
Lucedale, MS 39452-2493

Dear Deborah Lewis Welford:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Karen Logan
1078 County Road 194
Blue Springs, MS 38828-9430

Dear Karen Logan:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Wilda Lovdahl
66 E Hill Rd
Purvis, MS 39475-3240

Dear Wilda Lovdahl:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Catherine Lutz
1518 East Peace
Canton, MS 39046

Dear Catherine Lutz:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Patricia Lyles
124 Cumberland Rd
Brandon, MS 39047-6710

Dear Patricia Lyles:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Betty Magee
303 E Court Ave
Mendenhall, MS 39114-3603

Dear Betty Magee:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Jill Mallette
13817 Old Fort Bayou Rd
Vanceleave, MS 39565-7974

Dear Jill Mallette:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Sheryl Malone
3427 Harle St
Pearl, MS 39208-2917

Dear Sheryl Malone:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

James Mason
Po Box 384
Walthall, MS 39771-0384

Dear James Mason:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Amanda Mauldin
748 Sumrall Rd
Sumrall, MS 39482-9201

Dear Amanda Mauldin:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Martha Mauldin
201 Stone Rd
Oxford, MS 38655-2025

Dear Martha Mauldin:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Sherie Mauney
Po Box 548
Ashland, MS 38603-0548

Dear Sherie Mauney:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Kristy Mc Bryde
8720 County Road 701
Ripley, MS 38663-9438

Dear Kristy Mc Bryde:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Marcia Mc Calmon
181 County Road 702
Blue Mountain, MS 38610-9157

Dear Marcia Mc Calmon:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Vanda Mc Cormick
13170 John Rd
Gulfport, MS 39503-5205

Dear Vanda Mc Cormick:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Teresa Mc Dowell
1738 Sessums Circle
Starkville, MS 39759-9365

Dear Teresa Mc Dowell:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Virginia Mc Elwee
105 Georgann Dr
Vicksburg, MS 39180-6094

Dear Virginia Mc Elwee:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Holly Mc Gehee
Po Box 353
Meadville, MS 39653-0353

Dear Holly Mc Gehee:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Kara Mc Ginnis
2421 Beachview Dr., #B14
Ocean Springs, MS 39564-9472

Dear Kara Mc Ginnis:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Vivian Mc Klemurry
1307 E Deer Rdg
Brandon, MS 39042-8602

Dear Vivian Mc Klemurry:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Susan Mc Mullen
140 Little Harpe Trl
Saltillo, MS 38866-9562

Dear Susan Mc Mullen:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Amy Mc Phail
426 Apple Vly
Pearl, MS 39208-6601

Dear Amy Mc Phail:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Carol Mc Rae
475 Lakeview Rd
Byhalia, MS 38611

Dear Carol Mc Rae:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Sherry Mc Whorter
2217 E Northside Dr
Jackson, MS 39211-5830

Dear Sherry Mc Whorter:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Kimberly Mc Williams
9321 Collinsville Lake Dr
Collinsville, MS 39325-9153

Dear Kimberly Mc Williams:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Sandra Meaut
373 Porter Ave
Biloxi, MS 39530-1943

Dear Sandra Meaut:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Bonita Mendenhall
305 Peachtree St
Brandon, MS 39042-7267

Dear Bonita Mendenhall:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Dieter Miller
1294 Kensington Dr
Biloxi, MS 39530-1620

Dear Dieter Miller:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Regina Mills
57 D Hutto Dr
Waynesboro, MS 39367-6613

Dear Regina Mills:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Roberta Mingee
115 Northampton Rd
Natchez, MS 39120-5240

Dear Roberta Mingee:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Mynette Minshew
106 Firecrest Dr
Brandon, MS 39042-1931

Dear Mynette Minshew:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Angela Moore
520 Wildberry Dr
Pearl, MS 39208-9222

Dear Angela Moore:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Linda Moore
2303 Pascagoula St
Pascagoula, MS 39567-5635

Dear Linda Moore:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Phillis Morgan
109 Romania Tanner Rd
Lucaledale, MS 39452-3157

Dear Phillis Morgan:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Lynn Morris
2208 Old Hwy 24
Hattiesburg, MS 39402-7751

Dear Lynn Morris:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Lewanda Morse
305 Thomas Street
Houston, MS 38851-8784

Dear Lewanda Morse:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Dianna Mosley
2936 Highway 11 N
Laurel, MS 39443-7783

Dear Dianna Mosley:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Eleanor Murphy
Route 1 Box 229
Newhebron, MS 39140-9635

Dear Eleanor Murphy:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Rebecca Lynn Murphy-John
199 Little Harpe Trail
Saltillo, MS 38866

Dear Rebecca Lynn Murphy-John:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Valerie Neal
213 Van Doren St
Pearl, MS 39208-3828

Dear Valerie Neal:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Vail Neal
604 Holman Ave
Cleveland, MS 38732-2012

Dear Vail Neal:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Donna Nichols
601 Old Main
Florence, MS 39073-8132

Dear Donna Nichols:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Michelle Nowlin
330 Swan Dr
Brandon, MS 39047-6729

Dear Michelle Nowlin:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Shirley Orey Wilson
1185 Aberdeen St
Jackson, MS 39209-7457

Dear Shirley Orey Wilson:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Janet Paczak
139 Fern Valley Rd
Brandon, MS 39042-1925

Dear Janet Paczak:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Norma Pardin
417 County Road 681
Saltillo, MS 38866-9539

Dear Norma Pardin:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Valerie Parker
21 County Road 444
Vardaman, MS 38878-9507

Dear Valerie Parker:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Viola Parnell
Po Box 1222
Greenwood, MS 38935-1222

Dear Viola Parnell:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Andrea Patterson
244 Brentwood Drive
Pontotoc, MS 38863-3531

Dear Andrea Patterson:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Antoinette Payne
2034 Bayside Dr
Biloxi, MS 39532-4346

Dear Antoinette Payne:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Jana Pennell
925 Whispering Hollow St
Wiggins, MS 39577-3134

Dear Jana Pennell:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Linda Perez
104 Germantown Rd
Madison, MS 39110-9078

Dear Linda Perez:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Margaret Pickich
7400 Kruger Pl
Ocean Springs, MS 39564-8175

Dear Margaret Pickich:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Martha Pittman
Rr 1 Box 83j
Eupora, MS 39744-9700

Dear Martha Pittman:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Gladys Pounders
390 Matthews Rd
Laurel, MS 39443-0731

Dear Gladys Pounders:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Dorothy Prestwich
Po Box 425
Lambert, MS 38643-0425

Dear Dorothy Prestwich:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Shelly Pulliam
23513 Shavers Rd.
Saucier, MS 39574

Dear Shelly Pulliam:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Gwenda Purnell
3607 Mercier Dr
Pascagoula, MS 39581-2238

Dear Gwenda Purnell:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Tims Quinn
304 Mckie St
Senatobia, MS 38668-2210

Dear Tims Quinn:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Elizabeth Raley
2717 Montclair Ave
Pascagoula, MS 39567-5286

Dear Elizabeth Raley:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Denise Randleman
906 Eisenhower Drive
Tupelo, MS 38801-5402

Dear Denise Randleman:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Phyllis Ray
241 Ray Drive
Walnut, MS 38683-0379

Dear Phyllis Ray:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Ella Ray Brown
166 E J Lucky Rd
Magee, MS 39111-5148

Dear Ella Ray Brown:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Kathy Redmond
4801 Trick Talbert Rd
Bailey, MS 39320-9734

Dear Kathy Redmond:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Sally Reeves
6314 Koosa Dr
Marion, MS 39342-9458

Dear Sally Reeves:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Barbara Renacker
661 Guerry Rd
Columbus, MS 39701-8703

Dear Barbara Renacker:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Tracey Rhodes
202 King Street
Taylorsville, MS 39168-9564

Dear Tracey Rhodes:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Donna Rigel
266 Balboa Dr
Hattiesburg, MS 39402-7711

Dear Donna Rigel:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Donna Roberts
47 Thornhill Ln
Sandy Hook, MS 39478-9704

Dear Donna Roberts:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Laura Robertson
5233 Scr 19
Taylorsville, MS 39168-4868

Dear Laura Robertson:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Martha Robinson
1372 S Thomas St
Tupelo, MS 38801-7213

Dear Martha Robinson:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Carla Rogers
62 Darlene Cv
Grenada, MS 38901-9134

Dear Carla Rogers:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Wendy Rogers
231 Rabbit Creek Rd.
Pontotoc, MS 38863

Dear Wendy Rogers:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Johnna Rogers
3051 Highway 51
Duck Hill, MS 38925-9768

Dear Johnna Rogers:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Neva Rone
107 Heights Dr
Oxford, MS 38655-6101

Dear Neva Rone:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Yancie Ross
150 Sweet Bay Trl
Petal, MS 39465-2669

Dear Yancie Ross:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Barbara Rowell
1380 Salem Church Rd
Collins, MS 39428-5907

Dear Barbara Rowell:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Joan Rutland
1302 Heidenheim Dr
Pascagoula, MS 39581-2313

Dear Joan Rutland:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Barbara Salley
2210 Jefferson St
Pascagoula, MS 39563-5129

Dear Barbara Salley:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Donna Schafer
8080 Crestwood Cove
Biloxi, MS 39532-8384

Dear Donna Schafer:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Victoria Schoenly
313 Deer Run North
Oxford, MS 38655

Dear Victoria Schoenly:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Kelly Schwartz
9123 Oak St
Bay Saint Louis, MS 39520-9539

Dear Kelly Schwartz:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Sheila Scott
6242 Woodland Cir
Meridian, MS 39305

Dear Sheila Scott:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Lily Scott
2609 Huckleberry Trl
Tupelo, MS 38801-0314

Dear Lily Scott:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Pamela Segars
212 Hoffman Ln
Waveland, MS 39576-4313

Dear Pamela Segars:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Mary Sennett
307 Gerald St
Leland, MS 38756-3120

Dear Mary Sennett:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Rosemary Sharpe
1 Abbeyville Ln
Hattiesburg, MS 39402-8251

Dear Rosemary Sharpe:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Sandra Sherrill
103 Ridgelawn Dr
Vicksburg, MS 39183-9570

Dear Sandra Sherrill:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Carolyn Simmons
318 Friendship Church Rd
Columbia, MS 39429-8157

Dear Carolyn Simmons:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Nancie Simmons
239 S Lang Ave
Long Beach, MS 39560-5818

Dear Nancie Simmons:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Christy Sisson
Route 4 Box 81
Eupora, MS 39744

Dear Christy Sisson:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Nancy Sistrunk
2204 Houston Thompson Rd
Starkville, MS 39759-8011

Dear Nancy Sistrunk:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Monika Smith
5603 Bounds Rd
Meridian, MS 39307-4160

Dear Monika Smith:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Miki Smith
1693 Jy Turner Road
Maben, MS 39750

Dear Miki Smith:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Kathryn Smith
131 Windchase Drive
Brandon, MS 39042-8864

Dear Kathryn Smith:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Catrina Smith
11 County Road 188
Corinth, MS 38834-1321

Dear Katrina Smith:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Myrtle Smith
209 Timberton Dr
Hattiesburg, MS 39401-8218

Dear Myrtle Smith:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Bennie Smith
3531 Lawrence St
Moss Point, MS 39563-4021

Dear Bennie Smith:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Crystal Smith
1931 Lincolnshire Blvd
Ridgeland, MS 39157-1217

Dear Crystal Smith:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Linda Smith
5909 Canterbury Rd
Jackson, MS 39206-2108

Dear Linda Smith:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Brenda Smith
64 Hepzibah Ln
Silver Creek, MS 39663-2325

Dear Brenda Smith:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Margaret Snider
1007 Camdenmill Dr
Ridgeland, MS 39157-1045

Dear Margaret Snider:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Christine Spinks
214 Magnolia St
Long Beach, MS 39560-6016

Dear Christine Spinks:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Dale Stanford
708 Hillshire Pl
Tupelo, MS 38804-1953

Dear Dale Stanford:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Cindy Steven-Pheal
109 Fox Run Dr
Hattiesburg, MS 39402-1033

Dear Cindy Steven-Pheal:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Fern Strahan
4350 Mt Alban Rd
Vicksburg, MS 39183-8171

Dear Fern Strahan:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Nenna Stubbs
4530b Highway 4 W
Ripley, MS 38663-9688

Dear Nenna Stubbs:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Brenda Suitor
207 Highway 45
Rienzi, MS 38865-9043

Dear Brenda Suitor:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Belinda Taylor
80 Taylor St
Lucedale, MS 39452-5537

Dear Belinda Taylor:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Paula Thompson
103 Butler Creek Dr
Florence, MS 39073-9513

Dear Paula Thompson:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Lorilyn Thompson
401b County Road 530
Ripley, MS 38663-8819

Dear Lorilyn Thompson:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Ruth Thompson
103 Beverly Ln
Hattiesburg, MS 39402-2010

Dear Ruth Thompson:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Billie Tingle
1708 Buena Vista St
Pascagoula, MS 39567-6505

Dear Billie Tingle:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Kathy Toler
3509 N 10th St
Ocean Springs, MS 39564-9400

Dear Kathy Toler:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Clarice Turner
Po Box 443
Ecru, MS 38841-0443

Dear Clarice Turner:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Edith Useforge
2606 Bay Pointe Dr
Biloxi, MS 39531-2757

Dear Edith Useforge:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Brenda Valles
215 Buena Vista Dr
Long Beach, MS 39560-5704

Dear Brenda Valles:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Wanda Vickery
Po Box 1652
Starkville, MS 39760-1652

Dear Wanda Vickery:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Theresa Vollar
1102 Choctaw Trl
Vicksburg, MS 39183-6913

Dear Theresa Vollar:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Jennifer Vowell
90 Dempsey Sisson Road
Louisville, MS 39339

Dear Jennifer Vowell:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Teresa Walker
33 Paul Watkins Dr
Petal, MS 39465-8111

Dear Teresa Walker:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

James Walker
1135 Pardue Rd
Raymond, MS 39154

Dear James Walker:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Madonna Walter
7608 Fairway Dr
Diamondhead, MS 39525-3435

Dear Madonna Walter:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Pamela Walton
144 Lana St
Pontotoc, MS 38863-3105

Dear Pamela Walton:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Kristy Ward
PO Box 47
Abbeville, MS 38601-0047

Dear Kristy Ward:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Belinda Watkins
100a Ridgelawn Dr
Vicksburg, MS 39183-9509

Dear Belinda Watkins:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Leslie Watkins Vidrine
199 Goodluck Rd
Petal, MS 39465-8191

Dear Leslie Watkins Vidrine:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Teri Watson
551 Cliffview Dr
Brandon, MS 39047-9189

Dear Teri Watson:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Dianne Webb
452 County Road 101
Oxford, MS 38655-8438

Dear Dianne Webb:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Sharon Weems
114 Crepe Myrtle Dr
Columbus, MS 39705-1717

Dear Sharon Weems:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Janet Welch
40272 Rye Bottom Rd
Hamilton, MS 39746-9673

Dear Janet Welch:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Barbara West
152 Belle Pointe
Madison, MS 39110-8274

Dear Barbara West:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Lavonda White
219 S Bierdeman Rd
Pearl, MS 39208-5020

Dear Lavonda White:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Nicola Whitworth
3181 Terry Road
Lambert, MS 38643-9746

Dear Nicola Whitworth:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Henry Wieniewitz
324 Westview Dr
Biloxi, MS 39531-2608

Dear Henry Wieniewitz:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Ava Wieniewitz
324 Westview Dr
Biloxi, MS 39531-2608

Dear Ava Wieniewitz:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Cindy Wilbanks
3142 N Harper Rd
Corinth, MS 38834-2905

Dear Cindy Wilbanks:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Carol Wilemon
312 Outlet Rd
Booneville, MS 38829-7876

Dear Carol Wilemon:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Debra Williams-Carter
303 Clements Avenue
Starkville, MS 39759

Dear Debra Williams-Carter:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Nichelle Wilson
24 Openwood Dr W
Carriere, MS 39426-7036

Dear Nichelle Wilson:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Sandra Winkler
20045 Will St
Long Beach, MS 39560-3350

Dear Sandra Winkler:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Maria Winters
329 Dixie Ave
Hattiesburg, MS 39401-4827

Dear Maria Winters:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Jacqueline Wintruba
86 Wolfe St
Bay Saint Louis, MS 39520-8923

Dear Jacqueline Wintruba:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Janet Wise
1200 S Montgomery St
Starkville, MS 39759-4136

Dear Janet Wise:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Lisa Wolfe
39 Sheila Drive
Oxford, MS 38655

Dear Lisa Wolfe:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Virginia Worthington
303 S 4th Ave
Cleveland, MS 38732-3159

Dear Virginia Worthington:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Georgianna Wright
50 Lakeview Dr., #106
Clinton, MS 39056-5240

Dear Georgianna Wright:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Cynthia Young
111 County Road 311
Oxford, MS 38655-8579

Dear Cynthia Young:

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Dear :

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Dear :

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.

January 21, 2003

Dear :

Congratulations on your achieving the teaching profession's highest standard – National Board Certification. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo rigorous assessment as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. 321 Mississippi teachers earned this honor this year, resulting in Mississippi ranking seventh in the number of new teachers earning this certification. Your efforts send a strong message to the rest of our nation as to Mississippi's dedication to education.

I would like to invite you to attend a reception honoring Mississippi's teachers who earned National Board Certification this year. Please join me at the Mississippi Department of Education's North Atrium in the Central High School Building, 359 North West Street, in Jackson on Wednesday, February 5, 2003, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. to recognize and honor your accomplishment. A map is enclosed for your reference. Please return the enclosed form to the address provided by Friday, January 31, so that we might plan accordingly.

Congratulations again on your accomplishment. Education is my top priority. I look forward to working with you to ensure a quality education for Mississippi's greatest resource, our children. Together we can set unprecedented goals and achieve unparalleled progress.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

encl.