

August 23, 2001

Dr. Larry Bailey, President
Mississippi Delta Community College
P.O. Box 668
Moorhead, MS 38761-0668

Dear Dr. Bailey:

I am writing to invite you to join me for lunch at the Governor's Mansion on Tuesday, September 25, at 11:30 am. It is my hope that this luncheon will give us an opportunity to discuss those things that are important to your college and to our state as a whole.

As our administration continues to look at ways in which we can provide more opportunity for our people, I feel that it is important to seek input from our local communities and our educational leaders. The insights that you bring and the messages that you carry from a daily interaction with local citizens and your students are very important as we work to develop policies that can improve the quality of life for our entire citizenry.

Please know that your presence at this luncheon is very important to me. I look forward to having you over for good food and a good discussion of those items that are important to your students, your faculty and your communities.

Please notify Kelly Riley, my Education Policy Liaison, at 601-359-2528 if you will be able to accept this invitation. I look forward to seeing you soon.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM/klr

August 23, 2001

Dr. David Cole, President
Itawamba Community College
602 West Hill Street
Fulton, MS 38843

Dear Dr. Cole:

I am writing to invite you to join me for lunch at the Governor's Mansion on Tuesday, September 25, at 11:30 am. It is my hope that this luncheon will give us an opportunity to discuss those things that are important to your college and to our state as a whole.

As our administration continues to look at ways in which we can provide more opportunity for our people, I feel that it is important to seek input from our local communities and our educational leaders. The insights that you bring and the messages that you carry from a daily interaction with local citizens and your students are very important as we work to develop policies that can improve the quality of life for our entire citizenry.

Please know that your presence at this luncheon is very important to me. I look forward to having you over for good food and a good discussion of those items that are important to your students, your faculty and your communities.

Please notify Kelly Riley, my Education Policy Liaison, at 601-359-2528 if you will be able to accept this invitation. I look forward to seeing you soon.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM/klr

August 23, 2001

Dr. Charles Chance, President
Northeast Mississippi Community College
101 Cunningham Boulevard
Booneville, MS 38829

Dear Dr. Chance:

I am writing to invite you to join me for lunch at the Governor's Mansion on Tuesday, September 25, at 11:30 am. It is my hope that this luncheon will give us an opportunity to discuss those things that are important to your college and to our state as a whole.

As our administration continues to look at ways in which we can provide more opportunity for our people, I feel that it is important to seek input from our local communities and our educational leaders. The insights that you bring and the messages that you carry from a daily interaction with local citizens and your students are very important as we work to develop policies that can improve the quality of life for our entire citizenry.

Please know that your presence at this luncheon is very important to me. I look forward to having you over for good food and a good discussion of those items that are important to your students, your faculty and your communities.

Please notify Kelly Riley, my Education Policy Liaison, at 601-359-2528 if you will be able to accept this invitation. I look forward to seeing you soon.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM/klr

August 23, 2001

Dr. Thomas Davis, Jr., President
East Mississippi Community College
P.O. Box 188
Scooba, MS 39358-0188

Dear Dr. Davis:

I am writing to invite you to join me for lunch at the Governor's Mansion on Tuesday, September 25, at 11:30 am. It is my hope that this luncheon will give us an opportunity to discuss those things that are important to your college and to our state as a whole.

As our administration continues to look at ways in which we can provide more opportunity for our people, I feel that it is important to seek input from our local communities and our educational leaders. The insights that you bring and the messages that you carry from a daily interaction with local citizens and your students are very important as we work to develop policies that can improve the quality of life for our entire citizenry.

Please know that your presence at this luncheon is very important to me. I look forward to having you over for good food and a good discussion of those items that are important to your students, your faculty and your communities.

Please notify Kelly Riley, my Education Policy Liaison, at 601-359-2528 if you will be able to accept this invitation. I look forward to seeing you soon.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM/klr

August 23, 2001

Dr. Scott Elliott, President
Meridian Community College
910 Highway 19 North
Meridian, MS 39307

Dear Dr. Elliott:

I am writing to invite you to join me for lunch at the Governor's Mansion on Tuesday, September 25, at 11:30 am. It is my hope that this luncheon will give us an opportunity to discuss those things that are important to your college and to our state as a whole.

As our administration continues to look at ways in which we can provide more opportunity for our people, I feel that it is important to seek input from our local communities and our educational leaders. The insights that you bring and the messages that you carry from a daily interaction with local citizens and your students are very important as we work to develop policies that can improve the quality of life for our entire citizenry.

Please know that your presence at this luncheon is very important to me. I look forward to having you over for good food and a good discussion of those items that are important to your students, your faculty and your communities.

Please notify Kelly Riley, my Education Policy Liaison, at 601-359-2528 if you will be able to accept this invitation. I look forward to seeing you soon.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM/klr

August 23, 2001

Dr. Howell Garner, President
Copiah-Lincoln Community College
P.O. Box 457
Wesson, MS 39191-0457

Dear Dr. Garner:

I am writing to invite you to join me for lunch at the Governor's Mansion on Tuesday, September 25, at 11:30 am. It is my hope that this luncheon will give us an opportunity to discuss those things that are important to your college and to our state as a whole.

As our administration continues to look at ways in which we can provide more opportunity for our people, I feel that it is important to seek input from our local communities and our educational leaders. The insights that you bring and the messages that you carry from a daily interaction with local citizens and your students are very important as we work to develop policies that can improve the quality of life for our entire citizenry.

Please know that your presence at this luncheon is very important to me. I look forward to having you over for good food and a good discussion of those items that are important to your students, your faculty and your communities.

Please notify Kelly Riley, my Education Policy Liaison, at 601-359-2528 if you will be able to accept this invitation. I look forward to seeing you soon.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM/klr

August 23, 2001

Dr. David Haraway, President
Northwest Mississippi Community College
510 N. Panola Street
Senatobia, MS 38668

Dear Dr. Haraway:

I am writing to invite you to join me for lunch at the Governor's Mansion on Tuesday, September 25, at 11:30 am. It is my hope that this luncheon will give us an opportunity to discuss those things that are important to your college and to our state as a whole.

As our administration continues to look at ways in which we can provide more opportunity for our people, I feel that it is important to seek input from our local communities and our educational leaders. The insights that you bring and the messages that you carry from a daily interaction with local citizens and your students are very important as we work to develop policies that can improve the quality of life for our entire citizenry.

Please know that your presence at this luncheon is very important to me. I look forward to having you over for good food and a good discussion of those items that are important to your students, your faculty and your communities.

Please notify Kelly Riley, my Education Policy Liaison, at 601-359-2528 if you will be able to accept this invitation. I look forward to seeing you soon.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM/klr

August 23, 2001

Dr. Horace Holmes, President
Southwest Mississippi Community College
College Drive
Summit, MS 39666

Dear Dr. Holmes:

I am writing to invite you to join me for lunch at the Governor's Mansion on Tuesday, September 25, at 11:30 am. It is my hope that this luncheon will give us an opportunity to discuss those things that are important to your college and to our state as a whole.

As our administration continues to look at ways in which we can provide more opportunity for our people, I feel that it is important to seek input from our local communities and our educational leaders. The insights that you bring and the messages that you carry from a daily interaction with local citizens and your students are very important as we work to develop policies that can improve the quality of life for our entire citizenry.

Please know that your presence at this luncheon is very important to me. I look forward to having you over for good food and a good discussion of those items that are important to your students, your faculty and your communities.

Please notify Kelly Riley, my Education Policy Liaison, at 601-359-2528 if you will be able to accept this invitation. I look forward to seeing you soon.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM/klr

August 23, 2001

Dr. William Lewis, President
Pearl River Community College
P.O. Box 5090
Poplarville, MS 39470

Dear Dr. Lewis:

I am writing to invite you to join me for lunch at the Governor's Mansion on Tuesday, September 25, at 11:30 am. It is my hope that this luncheon will give us an opportunity to discuss those things that are important to your college and to our state as a whole.

As our administration continues to look at ways in which we can provide more opportunity for our people, I feel that it is important to seek input from our local communities and our educational leaders. The insights that you bring and the messages that you carry from a daily interaction with local citizens and your students are very important as we work to develop policies that can improve the quality of life for our entire citizenry.

Please know that your presence at this luncheon is very important to me. I look forward to having you over for good food and a good discussion of those items that are important to your students, your faculty and your communities.

Please notify Kelly Riley, my Education Policy Liaison, at 601-359-2528 if you will be able to accept this invitation. I look forward to seeing you soon.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM/klr

August 23, 2001

Dr. Willis Lott, President
Mississippi Gulf Coast Community College
P.O. Box 609
Perkinston, MS 39573

Dear Dr. Lott:

I am writing to invite you to join me for lunch at the Governor's Mansion on Tuesday, September 25, at 11:30 am. It is my hope that this luncheon will give us an opportunity to discuss those things that are important to your college and to our state as a whole.

As our administration continues to look at ways in which we can provide more opportunity for our people, I feel that it is important to seek input from our local communities and our educational leaders. The insights that you bring and the messages that you carry from a daily interaction with local citizens and your students are very important as we work to develop policies that can improve the quality of life for our entire citizenry.

Please know that your presence at this luncheon is very important to me. I look forward to having you over for good food and a good discussion of those items that are important to your students, your faculty and your communities.

Please notify Kelly Riley, my Education Policy Liaison, at 601-359-2528 if you will be able to accept this invitation. I look forward to seeing you soon.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM/klr

August 23, 2001

Dr. Starkey Morgan, President
Holmes Community College
P.O. Box 369
Goodman, MS 39079-0369

Dear Dr. Morgan:

I am writing to invite you to join me for lunch at the Governor's Mansion on Tuesday, September 25, at 11:30 am. It is my hope that this luncheon will give us an opportunity to discuss those things that are important to your college and to our state as a whole.

As our administration continues to look at ways in which we can provide more opportunity for our people, I feel that it is important to seek input from our local communities and our educational leaders. The insights that you bring and the messages that you carry from a daily interaction with local citizens and your students are very important as we work to develop policies that can improve the quality of life for our entire citizenry.

Please know that your presence at this luncheon is very important to me. I look forward to having you over for good food and a good discussion of those items that are important to your students, your faculty and your communities.

Please notify Kelly Riley, my Education Policy Liaison, at 601-359-2528 if you will be able to accept this invitation. I look forward to seeing you soon.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM/klr

August 23, 2001

Dr. Clyde Muse, President
Hinds Community College
P.O. Box 1100
Raymond, MS 39154-1100

Dear Dr. Muse:

I am writing to invite you to join me for lunch at the Governor's Mansion on Tuesday, September 25, at 11:30 am. It is my hope that this luncheon will give us an opportunity to discuss those things that are important to your college and to our state as a whole.

As our administration continues to look at ways in which we can provide more opportunity for our people, I feel that it is important to seek input from our local communities and our educational leaders. The insights that you bring and the messages that you carry from a daily interaction with local citizens and your students are very important as we work to develop policies that can improve the quality of life for our entire citizenry.

Please know that your presence at this luncheon is very important to me. I look forward to having you over for good food and a good discussion of those items that are important to your students, your faculty and your communities.

Please notify Kelly Riley, my Education Policy Liaison, at 601-359-2528 if you will be able to accept this invitation. I look forward to seeing you soon.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM/klr

August 23, 2001

Dr. Vivian Presley, President
Coahoma Community College
3240 Friars Point Road
Clarksdale, MS 38614

Dear Dr. Presley:

I am writing to invite you to join me for lunch at the Governor's Mansion on Tuesday, September 25, at 11:30 am. It is my hope that this luncheon will give us an opportunity to discuss those things that are important to your college and to our state as a whole.

As our administration continues to look at ways in which we can provide more opportunity for our people, I feel that it is important to seek input from our local communities and our educational leaders. The insights that you bring and the messages that you carry from a daily interaction with local citizens and your students are very important as we work to develop policies that can improve the quality of life for our entire citizenry.

Please know that your presence at this luncheon is very important to me. I look forward to having you over for good food and a good discussion of those items that are important to your students, your faculty and your communities.

Please notify Kelly Riley, my Education Policy Liaison, at 601-359-2528 if you will be able to accept this invitation. I look forward to seeing you soon.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM/klr

August 23, 2001

Dr. Phil Sutphin, President
East Central Community College
P.O. Box 129
Decatur, MS 39327-0129

Dear Dr. Sutphin:

I am writing to invite you to join me for lunch at the Governor's Mansion on Tuesday, September 25, at 11:30 am. It is my hope that this luncheon will give us an opportunity to discuss those things that are important to your college and to our state as a whole.

As our administration continues to look at ways in which we can provide more opportunity for our people, I feel that it is important to seek input from our local communities and our educational leaders. The insights that you bring and the messages that you carry from a daily interaction with local citizens and your students are very important as we work to develop policies that can improve the quality of life for our entire citizenry.

Please know that your presence at this luncheon is very important to me. I look forward to having you over for good food and a good discussion of those items that are important to your students, your faculty and your communities.

Please notify Kelly Riley, my Education Policy Liaison, at 601-359-2528 if you will be able to accept this invitation. I look forward to seeing you soon.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM/klr

August 23, 2001

Dr. Ron Whitehead, President
Jones Junior College
900 Court Street
Ellisville, MS 39437

Dear Dr. Whitehead:

I am writing to invite you to join me for lunch at the Governor's Mansion on Tuesday, September 25, at 11:30 am. It is my hope that this luncheon will give us an opportunity to discuss those things that are important to your college and to our state as a whole.

As our administration continues to look at ways in which we can provide more opportunity for our people, I feel that it is important to seek input from our local communities and our educational leaders. The insights that you bring and the messages that you carry from a daily interaction with local citizens and your students are very important as we work to develop policies that can improve the quality of life for our entire citizenry.

Please know that your presence at this luncheon is very important to me. I look forward to having you over for good food and a good discussion of those items that are important to your students, your faculty and your communities.

Please notify Kelly Riley, my Education Policy Liaison, at 601-359-2528 if you will be able to accept this invitation. I look forward to seeing you soon.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM/klr