

December 31, 2003

Raymond Abernathy
DeSoto County School District

Dear Raymond:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Lynda Acquilano
Madison County School District

Dear Lynda:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Leigh Adams
Leflore County School District

Dear Leigh:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Nelta Allen
Baldwyn School District

Dear Nelta:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Regina Allen
Columbia School District

Dear Regina:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Bradley Amacker
Petal School District

Dear Bradley:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Linda Arledge
Lauderdale County School District

Dear Linda:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Donna Armstrong
West Point School District

Dear Donna:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Allison Ashmore
Grenada School District

Dear Allison:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Shontelle Barnes
Smith County School District

Dear Shontelle:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Vickie Barnett
Jones County School District

Dear Vickie:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Elisa Baty
Lauderdale County School District

Dear Elisa:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Rhonda Bayles
Lawrence County School District

Dear Rhonda:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Patricia Bialas
Biloxi Public School District

Dear Patricia:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Amanda Bivings
Lamar County School District

Dear Amanda:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Sheryl Boone
Jones County School District

Dear Sheryl:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Daphne Bordelon
Columbus Municipal School District

Dear Daphne:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Maryanne Boutwell
Columbia School District

Dear Maryanne:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Julia Boyd
North Pike School District

Dear Julia:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Regina Boyd
West Point School District

Dear Regina:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Rebecca Bradley
Long Beach School District

Dear Rebecca:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Virginia Braithwaite
Meridian Public School District

Dear Virginia:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Martha Brannan
Pontotoc County School District

Dear Martha:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Sharon Braswell
Nettleton School District

Dear Sharon:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Laura Bray
Houston School District

Dear Laura:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Ellen Breazeale
Neshoba County School District

Dear Ellen:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Brenda Brewer
Lauderdale County School District

Dear Brenda:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Martha Broadus
Lamar County School District

Dear Martha:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Jennifer Brown
West Point School District

Dear Jennifer:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Mary Brownlee
Hinds County School District

Dear Mary:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Emelda Bryant
Brookhaven School District

Dear Emelda:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Sheree Buckhaults
Jones County School District

Dear Sheree:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Suzanne Bullock
Pascagoula Separate School District

Dear Suzanne:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Amy Burks
Corinth School District

Dear Amy:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Debra Burrus
Gulfport School District

Dear Debra:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Dale Burton
Newton County School District

Dear Dale:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Lisa Buse
Tupelo Public School District

Dear Lisa:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Clarence Butler
Biloxi Public School District

Dear Clarence:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Laura Butler
Stone County School District

Dear Laura:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Amy Bynum
Lamar County School District

Dear Amy:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Gail Caldwell
Lafayette County School District

Dear Gail:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Charlotte Campbell
Madison County School District

Dear Charlotte:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Marjorie Canon
Columbus Municipal School District

Dear Marjorie:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Natalie Carollo
Madison County School District

Dear Natalie:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Jennifer Carr
Lamar County School District

Dear Jennifer:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Enita Carter
Picayune School District

Dear Enita:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Lynn Chamblee
Leake County School District

Dear Lynn:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Chandler Nichole
Hinds County School District

Dear Chandler:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Paula Childs
Alcorn County School District

Dear Paula:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Judy Clanton
Webster County School District

Dear Judy:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Pamela Clark
Rankin County School District

Dear Pamela:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Laura Clark
Harrison County School District

Dear Laura:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Andrea Clark
Harrison County School District

Dear Andrea:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Clark Stephanie
Union County School District

Dear Clark:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Henrietta Clay
Pearl Public School District

Dear Henrietta:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Cheryl Cohen
Rankin County School District

Dear Cheryl:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Rhonda Coker
DeSoto County School District

Dear Rhonda:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Ashley Coleman
South Panola School District

Dear Ashley:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Lisa Coleman
Pascagoula Separate School District

Dear Lisa:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Leigh Collins
Baldwyn School District

Dear Leigh:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Jeannie Cook
Gulfport School District

Dear Jeannie:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Tonya Cook
Gulfport School District

Dear Tonya:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Kristi Cook
Jackson County School District

Dear Kristi:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Danette Cooley
George County School District

Dear Danette:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Emily Counts
Simpson County School District

Dear Emily:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Teri Cranford
Jones County School District

Dear Teri:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Enda Cunningham
Pearl Public School District

Dear Enda:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Jimmi Daugherty
Lauderdale County School District

Dear Jimmi:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Carol Davis
Jones County School District

Dear Carol:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Susan Dawson
Jackson County School District

Dear Susan:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Terina Dexter
Pontotoc County School District

Dear Terina:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Mary Jo Dolley
Mississippi School for the Blind
1252 Eastover Drive
Jackson, MS 39211

Dear Mary Jo:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Judy Doolittle
Calhoun County School District

Dear Judy:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Melissa Downs
South Panola School District

Dear Melissa:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Tana Duckworth
Rankin County School District

Dear Tana:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Susan Dudley
Tupelo Public School District

Dear Susan:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Roxanne Duhon
Lamar County School District

Dear Roxanne:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Carmon Dye
Columbus Municipal School District

Dear Carmon:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Maryellen Eaves
South and Eastern States Agency

Dear Maryellen:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Diane Elliott
Cleveland School District

Dear Diane:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Larry Emmons
Grenada School District

Dear Larry:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Beverly Farr
Marshall County School District

Dear Beverly:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Julia Faulk
South and Eastern States Agency

Dear Julia:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Debra Fioranelli
Cleveland School District

Dear Debra:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Amy Fleming
Pearl River County School District

Dear Amy:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Jeanenne Floyd
Smith County School District

Dear Jeanenne:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Sharon Ford
Rankin County School District

Dear Sharon:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Susan Foster
Hinds County School District

Dear Susan:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Elizabeth Foster
Hinds County School District

Dear Elizabeth:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Mary Fraschillo
Hattiesburg Public School District

Dear Mary:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Dorothy Freeny
Leake County School District

Dear Dorothy:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Janice Gardner
Webster County School District

Dear Janice:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Michelle Gaskin
Calhoun County School District

Dear Michelle:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Christine Geissinger
Moss Point Separate School District

Dear Christine:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Antrunette Gentry
Madison County School District

Dear Antrunette:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Shelley George
Meridian Public School District

Dear Shelley:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Wendy Gibson
Starkville School District

Dear Wendy:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Amanda Goldman
Rankin County School District

Dear Amanda:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Jennifer Gorman
DeSoto County School District

Dear Jennifer:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Lee Grace
Tupelo Public School District

Dear Lee:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Nancy Graham
West Jasper Consolidated Schools

Dear Nancy:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

James Graves
Covington County Schools

Dear James:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Elizabeth Green
Pascagoula Separate School District

Dear Elizabeth:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Deborah Griffin
Jones County School District

Dear Deborah:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Amanda Gurley
Amory School District

Dear Amanda:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Evelyn Guy
Meridian Public School District

Dear Evelyn:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Marsha Hack
Gulfport School District

Dear Marsha:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Janice Hall
Calhoun County School District

Dear Janice:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Cathy Haney
Amory School District

Dear Cathy:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Martha Hanna
Madison County School District

Dear Martha:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Linda Hantzis
Neshoba County School District

Dear Linda:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Linda Harper
Lowndes County School District

Dear Linda:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Linda Harper
Rankin County School District

Dear Linda:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Jacqueline Harper
Jackson Public School District

Dear Jacqueline:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Tara Harris
Tupelo Public School District

Dear Tara:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Dorothy Harrison
Western Line School District

Dear Dorothy:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Elthea Harrison
Madison County School District

Dear Elthea:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Wanda Harvey
Covington County Schools

Dear Wanda:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Barbara Henry
Shaw School District

Dear Barbara:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Sherrye Henson
Pontotoc County School District

Dear Sherrye:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Debra Herring
Scott County School District

Dear Debra:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Lisa Hicks
Petal School District

Dear Lisa:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Jennifer Hill
Starkville School District

Dear Jennifer:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Marsha Hillhouse
Pontotoc City Schools

Dear Marsha:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Malessia Hines
Noxubee County School District

Dear Malessia:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Angela Hobart
Starkville School District

Dear Angela:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Angela Hodges
Booneville School District

Dear Angela:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Deborah Hodges
George County School District

Dear Deborah:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Janice Hogan
Jackson Public School District

Dear Janice:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Melinda Holcomb
Petal School District

Dear Melinda:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Ouida Holland
George County School District

Dear Ouida:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Anitra Hollis
Rankin County School District

Dear Anitra:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Teresa Hollowell
Lafayette County School District

Dear Teresa:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Mary Ann Horton
Madison County School District

Dear Mary Ann:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Martha Hosey
Jones County School District

Dear Martha:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Mark Howle
Hattiesburg Public School District

Dear Mark:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Laura Hubbard
Pascagoula Separate School District

Dear Laura:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Nina Huffman
Monroe County School District

Dear Nina:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Paul Hughes
Hattiesburg Public School District

Dear Paul:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Joanna Hunt
Madison County School District

Dear Joanna:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Diane Hurlbert
Hancock County School District

Dear Diane:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Adrienne Huskey
Jackson Public School District

Dear Adrienne:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Lacey Hutchinson
Lawrence County School District

Dear Lacey:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Keturah Hutson
Alcorn School District

Dear Keturah:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Carrye Ishee
Smith County School District

Dear Carrye:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Rosia Jackson
Jackson Public School District

Dear Rosia:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Judith James
Pass Christian Public School District

Dear Judith:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Lisa Jenkins
Petal School District

Dear Lisa:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Daphne Johnson
Copiah County School District

Dear Daphne:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Amy Johnson
Tupelo Public School District

Dear Amy:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Amy Johnston
Philadelphia Public School District

Dear Amy:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Corinne Jordan
Meridian Public School District

Dear Corinne:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Darla Joyce Bush Leggett
Hinds County School District

Dear Darla:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Marilyn Julian
Rankin County School District

Dear Marilyn:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Pamela K. Walker
Pascagoula Separate School District

Dear Pamela:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Dorothy Kalusche
McComb School District

Dear Dorothy:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Stephanie Keller
Lauderdale County School District

Dear Stephanie:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Lisa Kimbriel
Rankin County School District

Dear Lisa:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Sonya Kisner
Lafayette County School District

Dear Sonya:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

KaTina Kitchens-Lloyd

Dear Katina:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Carole Kloha
Tupelo Public School District

Dear Carole:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Jennet Lacey
Columbus Municipal School District

Dear Jennet:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Mary Ladner
No Information Provided

Dear Mary:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Susan Ladner
Long Beach School District

Dear Susan:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Elizabeth Lann
No Information Provided

Dear Elizabeth:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Amanda Leake
Meridian Public School District

Dear Amanda:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Debra Lewis
Hinds County School District

Dear Debra:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Kimberly Lewis
Rankin County School District

Dear Kimberly:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Vernell Lewis
Jackson Public School District

Dear Vernell:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Linda Lofton
South and Eastern States Agency

Dear Linda:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Heather Long
Pascagoula Separate School District

Dear Heather:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Gerry Long
Booneville School District

Dear Gerry:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Teresa Loper
Petal School District

Dear Teresa:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Mary Loper
Wayne County School District

Dear Mary:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Kelly Lott
Lamar County School District

Dear Kelly:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Stephanie Love
Jackson Public School District

Dear Stephanie:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

James Lucius
Tupelo Public School District

Dear James:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Doris Malone
Natchez-Adams School District

Dear Doris:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Cheryl Malone
Pontotoc County School District

Dear Cheryl:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Angela Mangum
Hinds County School District

Dear Angela:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Clayton Marble
DeSoto County School District

Dear Clayton:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Julie Mattox
Tupelo Public School District

Dear Julie:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Pamela McAlilly
Indianola School District

Dear Pamela:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Connie McCluskey
Lafayette County School District

Dear Connie:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Mary McCollum
Covington County Schools

Dear Mary:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Donna McCommon
Pearl Public School District

Dear Donna:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Sherry McGinity Ponder
Gulfport School District

Dear Sherry:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Stephanie McGreger
DeSoto County School District

Dear Stephanie:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Patricia McKinzie
Louisville Municipal School District

Dear Patricia:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Kelley McKnight
Hancock County School District

Dear Kelley:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Lucy McKone
Lincoln County School District

Dear Lucy:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Rebecca Meadows
Jones County School District

Dear Rebecca:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Kelly Mainz
Union County School District

Dear Kelly:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Angela Miles
Kosciusko School District

Dear Angela:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Tamra Mills
Newton County School District

Dear Tamra:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Pamela Mills
Louisville Municipal School District

Dear Pamela:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Ida Mize
Calhoun County School District

Dear Ida:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Rita Mizell
George County School District

Dear Rita:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Lisa Mohamed
Hollondale School District

Dear Lisa:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Patricia Montgomery
Rankin County School District

Dear Patricia:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Marianne Mooney
Jackson Public School District

Dear Marianne:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Sharon Mullen
Durant Public School District

Dear Sharon:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Donna Munro
Biloxi Public School District

Dear Donna:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Melinda Nabors
Long Beach School District

Dear Melinda:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Tanya Nelson
Alcorn School District

Dear Tanya:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Ronald Newell
Starkville School District

Dear Ronald:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Elizabeth Nutt
Hinds County School District

Dear Elizabeth:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Pamela Opell
Gulfport School District

Dear Pamela:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Sandra Owen
Gulfport School District

Dear Sandra:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Donna Palmertree
Oxford School District

Dear Donna:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Sandra Peoples
Natchez-Adams School District

Dear Sandra:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Jennifer Peters
East Tallahatchie Consolidated School District

Dear Jennifer:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Theresia Phillips
North Bolivar School District

Dear Theresia:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Pamela Pickering
Covington County Schools

Dear Pamela:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Sherra Potts
Alcorn School District

Dear Sherra:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Joan Priddy
Vicksburg-Warren School District

Dear Joan:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Patricia Prowell
Jackson Public School District

Dear Patricia:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Patricia Rake
Jackson County School District

Dear Patricia:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Ruth Randall
Hinds County School Dist

Dear Ruth:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Angela Rawls
Pearl Public School District

Dear Angela:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Lisa Rector
Lowndes County School District

Dear Lisa:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Bethane Reeves
Newton County School District

Dear Bethane:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Joy Rich
South Tippah School District

Dear Joy:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Traci Rivers
Jackson County School District

Dear Traci:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Josephine Roberts
Lamar County School District

Dear Josephine:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Rachel Robertson
Lamar County School District

Dear Rachel:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Kathy Robinson
Columbus Municipal School District

Dear Kathy:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Susan Robinson
Rankin County School District

Dear Susan:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Mary Rodgers
Ocean Springs School District

Dear Mary:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Karen Rogers
Hinds County School District

Dear Karen:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Margaret Rowland
Tupelo Public School District

Dear Margaret:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Stephanie Roy
Water Valley School District

Dear Stephanie:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Sandra Rushing
Rankin County School District

Dear Sandra:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Jeanne Sanders
Poplarville Separate School District

Dear Jeanne:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Karen Saul
Madison County School District

Dear Karen:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Minnie Schertzer
Poplarville Separate School District

Dear Minnie:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Donna Schmitz
South Tippah School District

Dear Donna:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Jonathan Schwartz
Gulfport School District

Dear Jonathan:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Mary Scott
Greenville Public Schools

Dear Mary:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Elizabeth Sessum
Columbus Municipal School District

Dear Elizabeth:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Patricia Sharp
Lawrence County School District

Dear Patricia:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Gail Shemwell
Jackson County School District

Dear Gail:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Wendy Sherman
Jones County School District

Dear Wendy:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Jannet Shumaker
Biloxi Public School District

Dear Jannet:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Teena Simpson
South Tippah School District

Dear Teena:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Lauri Simms
Clinton Public School District

Dear Lauri:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Suzanne Sloan
Monroe County School District

Dear Suzanne:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Nancy Sloan
Rankin County School District

Dear Nancy:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Lynda Smith
Long Beach School District

Dear Lynda:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Wilma Smith
Lauderdale County School District

Dear Wilma:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Carnice Smith
Jackson Public School District

Dear Carnice:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Thomas Smith
Jackson Public School District

Dear Thomas:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Vivian Smith
Mississippi School for the Deaf
1253 Eastover Drive
Jackson, MS 39211

Dear Vivian:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Dinah Smith
Philadelphia Public School District

Dear Dinah:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Tara Smith
Canton Public School District

Dear Tara:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Emily Snellings
Chickasaw County School District

Dear Emily:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Mindi Stout
Pontotoc County School District

Dear Mindi:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Linda Stringer
Hinds County School District

Dear Linda:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Laurie Stringer
Covington County Schools

Dear Laurie:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Judy Strong
Madison County School District

Dear Judy:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Patricia Sudduth
Madison County School District

Dear Patricia:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Christy Suggs
Pontotoc City Schools

Dear Christy:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Deborah Sullivan
Nettleton School District

Dear Deborah:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Carol Szymanski
Long Beach School District

Dear Carol:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Shirley Taylor
Baldwyn School District

Dear Shirley:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Mary Taylor
Gulfport School District

Dear Mary:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Deborah Thornton
Smith County School District

Dear Deborah:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Janet Thrash
Jones County School District

Dear Janet:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Tiffany Tidwell
Indianola School District

Dear Tiffany:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Carolyn Tillman
Jackson Public School District

Dear Carolyn:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Jean Tincher
Long Beach School District

Dear Jean:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Amy Tisdale
Jones County School District

Dear Amy:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Christina Tuck
Pascagoula Separate School District

Dear Christina:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Teresa Tucker Martin
Rankin County School District

Dear Teresa:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Amy Tullos
Rankin County School District

Dear Amy:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Judy Turner
Gulfport School District

Dear Judy:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Opal Tweddle
Alcorn School District

Dear Opal:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Mary Waldrop
Laurel School District

Dear Mary:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Andrea Walker
Oxford School District

Dear Andrea:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Carol Warren
Kemper County School District

Dear Carol:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Laura Warren
Pearl Public School District

Dear Laura:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Jayne Washington
Jackson Public School District

Dear Jayne:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Valeria Weatherly
Corinth School District

Dear Valeria:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Tina Webb
Leake County School District

Dear Tina:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Laverne Webb
Rankin County School District

Dear Laverne:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Carol Welch
Lauderdale County School District

Dear Carol:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Mary White
Pontotoc County School District

Dear Mary:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Susan Whitehead
Harrison County School District

Dear Susan:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Jennifer Whittington
Rankin Cnty School District

Dear Jennifer:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Rebecca Wigglesworth
Pearl Public School District

Dear Rebecca:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Patti Lee Wilkins
George County School District

Dear Patti Lee:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Menica Williams
Lauderdale County School District

Dear Menica:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Mary Williams
Covington County Schools

Dear Mary:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Gina Williams
Rankin County School District

Dear Gina:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Karen Williams
Meridian Public School District

Dear Karen:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Sybil Wilner
Pascagoula Separate School District

Dear Sybil:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Gloria Wilson
Aberdeen School District

Dear Gloria:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Vicki Wilson
Tupelo Public School District

Dear Vicki:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Cheri Wood
Rankin County School District

Dear Cheri:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Daisy Woods
Natchez-Adams School District

Dear Daisy:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Kimberly Wooldridge
Grenada School District

Dear Kimberly:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Marsha Wren
South Panola School District

Dear Marsha:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Elizabeth Lann
Amory School District

Dear Elizabeth:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Valerie Starks-Sykes
Oxford School District

Dear Valerie:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Frances Hicks
Leake County Schools

Dear Frances:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

December 31, 2003

Susan Spiers
Picayune Public Schools

Dear Susan:

I am writing to invite you to attend a celebration of educational excellence on Wednesday, January 7, at the State Capitol.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Governor of Mississippi these past four years. I've made education my priority because good schools bring good jobs and build great communities. Education is the key to our state's future.

I hope you and your family will be able to join me on the 7th at 1:00 p.m. when I address a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature in the House chambers. I will use this opportunity to highlight Mississippi's educational excellence, including our having the 6th highest number of National Board Certified teachers. I appreciate your sincere commitment to undergo National Board Certification as part of a continuing effort to improve your skills and knowledge. I also hope you and your family will join me for a reception in my capitol office following my address.

I hope you will return the enclosed form to Kelly Riley of my staff to accept this invitation. Please arrive at my office on the third floor of the capitol by 12:30 p.m. to receive a ribbon of recognition for you to wear throughout the afternoon. It will truly be a celebration of educational excellence. I look forward to seeing you on the 7th.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

