Neal Johnson of AGB has emailed that he and Rich, in concert with Dr. Layzell, have begun to think through an informational briefing for our Congressional delegation (or their senior staff rep) regarding the higher ed summit. The briefings would be short and focused on letting the Congressmen know that you and Mr. Patterson have organized the steering committee, AGB's work and role in the process, what has been accomplished to date, and next steps. AGB is trying to conduct these briefings on Wednesday, September 12, and has inquired as to if you would like to attend the briefings or if you would like any staff to attend. Neal has solicited your approval of the idea of these briefings:

Yes _____ No _____

You are currently scheduled to be at SGA in Lexington, KY, September 9-11 and One-on-One is scheduled for September 12. Fred could attend the briefings on your behalf and I can brief him on the developments of the summit to date.

Also, if you and Mr. Patterson approve of these proposed briefings, Neal is going to contact Burns Strider, Congressman Shows' chief of staff, for assistance in making arrangements for the briefings. Strider is an acquaintance of Neal's and has offered to help. Is this approach acceptable to you, or would you prefer another approach?
