

*Remarks for the Mississippi School Boards Association Legislative Update and Law Review
April 14, 2003*

- Recognize John Hartman (executive director)

- Mississippi is taking on a different image
  - Image of a state moving faster than anyone else into the 21st century
  - A state that's competing and leading in the global marketplace
  - A state that's setting new standards in education and economic development

- In today's economy, Mississippi is like many other states

- Every state impacted by national recession
  - More than $7 trillion lost in stock market
  - More than 2 million Americans out of work
  - States cutting school week / releasing prisoners / massive lay-offs

- Have to protect people in the short term while preparing for the long term
  - Best way to do that is through investing in education and creating jobs

- Education is our first priority / has been for past three years since I've been in office
  - Public schools are our cornerstones of our communities and the key to the success of our economy.

- Mississippi is a recognized leader in education
  - Teacher pay / 49th to 19th when fully implemented
  - Princeton Review: 6th best testing system in nation
  - Leading other states in preparedness for “No Child Left Behind” / USA Today article
  - 6th in the nation in National Board Certified Teachers

- One of the most exciting successes in education is in technology
  - Every public school classroom in the state has Internet-accessible computer
  - Mississippi first state in the nation to achieve this goal / confirmed by NGA

- Mississippi's investing in education
  - Increasing investment while others are cutting
  - That is significant in light of national recession
  - Demonstrates our priority / our commitment

- Efforts in education didn't just start this year
  - Have been working on this since I took office
  - We are making strong progress

- We're proving to the people of Mississippi, and the rest of the nation, that we're serious about education
  - Making the investment now for dividends tomorrow

- When it comes to education, we mean business
  - Business means jobs

- Another image of Mississippi that's changing
  - No longer a state that depends on agriculture / low wage jobs
  - We are aggressive about creating quality, high-paying jobs for our people

- Strong growth over past 3 years
  - 2,103 new and expanded facilities
  - More than 50,000 new jobs
  - Total business investment in Mississippi of $14.1 billion

- We are putting our people to work in highly skilled jobs with good pay
  - Nissan plant opening in May / only auto plant opening in America this year
  - $1.5 billion investment by Nissan / 5,000 direct jobs
    - Even more from suppliers

- We gained the attention of companies around the world when we landed Nissan
  - They're coming to Mississippi because the word is out about what we can do
  - Site Selection magazine: Mississippi ranked as Top 10 location for new companies
  - One of top 10 states for small business survival

- Expansion magazine: 4 Mississippi cities ranked in latest survey of 50 hottest American cities for expansion or location of facilities

- When businesses read these industry publications, they see that Mississippi has something to offer
  - They realize the image has changed

- Mississippi Rural Economic Impact Authority has passed
  - $10 million to aid economic development in rural areas
  - Funding to cover workforce training at community colleges

- We're looking to the future of MS / where do we want to go?
  - Good schools / good jobs / good communities

- The image of the Mississippi of 2003 is unlike anything anyone could have imagined
  - It's an image of people working in highly-skilled, well-paying jobs
  - It's an image of children in classrooms equipped with the technology to bring the world to their desk
  - It's an image of global companies looking for a place to do business in the state

- Recognize any legislators in the audience
  - Thank them for bipartisan cooperation during the session
  - Thank for their commitment to realizing promise of Mississippi
