

October 15, 2001

Dr. Clinton Bristow, President
Alcorn State University
1000 ASU Drive, #359
Alcorn State, MS 39096

Dear Dr. Bristow:

I am writing to invite you to join me for lunch at the Governor's Mansion on Friday, November 9, at 11:30 am. It is my hope that this luncheon will give us an opportunity to discuss those things that are important to your university and to our state as a whole.

As our administration continues to look at ways in which we can provide more opportunity for our people, I feel that it is important to seek input from our local communities and our educational leaders. The insights that you bring and the messages that you carry from a daily interaction with local citizens and your students are very important as we work to develop policies that can improve the quality of life for our entire citizenry.

Please know that your presence at this luncheon is very important to me. I look forward to having you over for good food and a good discussion of those items that are important to your students, your faculty and your communities.

Please notify Kelly Riley, my Education Policy Liaison, at 601-359-2528 if you will be able to accept this invitation. I look forward to seeing you soon.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM/klr

October 15, 2001

Dr. David L. Potter, President
Delta State University
Box A-1
Cleveland, MS 38733

Dear Dr. Potter:

I am writing to invite you to join me for lunch at the Governor's Mansion on Friday, November 9, at 11:30 am. It is my hope that this luncheon will give us an opportunity to discuss those things that are important to your university and to our state as a whole.

As our administration continues to look at ways in which we can provide more opportunity for our people, I feel that it is important to seek input from our local communities and our educational leaders. The insights that you bring and the messages that you carry from a daily interaction with local citizens and your students are very important as we work to develop policies that can improve the quality of life for our entire citizenry.

Please know that your presence at this luncheon is very important to me. I look forward to having you over for good food and a good discussion of those items that are important to your students, your faculty and your communities.

Please notify Kelly Riley, my Education Policy Liaison, at 601-359-2528 if you will be able to accept this invitation. I look forward to seeing you soon.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM/klr

October 15, 2001

Dr. Ronald Mason, Jr., President
Jackson State University
1400 J.R. Lynch Street
Jackson, MS 39217

Dear Dr. Mason:

I am writing to invite you to join me for lunch at the Governor's Mansion on Friday, November 9, at 11:30 am. It is my hope that this luncheon will give us an opportunity to discuss those things that are important to your university and to our state as a whole.

As our administration continues to look at ways in which we can provide more opportunity for our people, I feel that it is important to seek input from our local communities and our educational leaders. The insights that you bring and the messages that you carry from a daily interaction with local citizens and your students are very important as we work to develop policies that can improve the quality of life for our entire citizenry.

Please know that your presence at this luncheon is very important to me. I look forward to having you over for good food and a good discussion of those items that are important to your students, your faculty and your communities.

Please notify Kelly Riley, my Education Policy Liaison, at 601-359-2528 if you will be able to accept this invitation. I look forward to seeing you soon.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM/klr

October 15, 2001

Dr. Malcolm Portera, President
Mississippi State University
P.O. Box 6018
Mississippi State, MS 39762

Dear Dr. Portera:

I am writing to invite you to join me for lunch at the Governor's Mansion on Friday, November 9, at 11:30 am. It is my hope that this luncheon will give us an opportunity to discuss those things that are important to your university and to our state as a whole.

As our administration continues to look at ways in which we can provide more opportunity for our people, I feel that it is important to seek input from our local communities and our educational leaders. The insights that you bring and the messages that you carry from a daily interaction with local citizens and your students are very important as we work to develop policies that can improve the quality of life for our entire citizenry.

Please know that your presence at this luncheon is very important to me. I look forward to having you over for good food and a good discussion of those items that are important to your students, your faculty and your communities.

Please notify Kelly Riley, my Education Policy Liaison, at 601-359-2528 if you will be able to accept this invitation. I look forward to seeing you soon.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM/klr

October 15, 2001

Justice Lenore Prather, Interim President
Mississippi University for Women
Welty Hall, Suite 301
P.O. Box W-1600
Columbus, MS 39701

Dear Justice Prather:

I am writing to invite you to join me for lunch at the Governor's Mansion on Friday, November 9, at 11:30 am. It is my hope that this luncheon will give us an opportunity to discuss those things that are important to your university and to our state as a whole.

As our administration continues to look at ways in which we can provide more opportunity for our people, I feel that it is important to seek input from our local communities and our educational leaders. The insights that you bring and the messages that you carry from a daily interaction with local citizens and your students are very important as we work to develop policies that can improve the quality of life for our entire citizenry.

Please know that your presence at this luncheon is very important to me. I look forward to having you over for good food and a good discussion of those items that are important to your students, your faculty and your communities.

Please notify Kelly Riley, my Education Policy Liaison, at 601-359-2528 if you will be able to accept this invitation. I look forward to seeing you soon.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM/klr

October 15, 2001

Dr. Lester Newman, President
Mississippi Valley State University
14000 Highway 82 West
Box 7272
Itta Bena, MS 38941

Dear Dr. Newman:

I am writing to invite you to join me for lunch at the Governor's Mansion on Friday, November 9, at 11:30 am. It is my hope that this luncheon will give us an opportunity to discuss those things that are important to your university and to our state as a whole.

As our administration continues to look at ways in which we can provide more opportunity for our people, I feel that it is important to seek input from our local communities and our educational leaders. The insights that you bring and the messages that you carry from a daily interaction with local citizens and your students are very important as we work to develop policies that can improve the quality of life for our entire citizenry.

Please know that your presence at this luncheon is very important to me. I look forward to having you over for good food and a good discussion of those items that are important to your students, your faculty and your communities.

Please notify Kelly Riley, my Education Policy Liaison, at 601-359-2528 if you will be able to accept this invitation. I look forward to seeing you soon.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM/klr

October 15, 2001

Dr. Robert Khayat, Chancellor
University of Mississippi
331 Martindale
University, MS 38677

Dear Dr. Khayat:

I am writing to invite you to join me for lunch at the Governor's Mansion on Friday, November 9, at 11:30 am. It is my hope that this luncheon will give us an opportunity to discuss those things that are important to your university and to our state as a whole.

As our administration continues to look at ways in which we can provide more opportunity for our people, I feel that it is important to seek input from our local communities and our educational leaders. The insights that you bring and the messages that you carry from a daily interaction with local citizens and your students are very important as we work to develop policies that can improve the quality of life for our entire citizenry.

Please know that your presence at this luncheon is very important to me. I look forward to having you over for good food and a good discussion of those items that are important to your students, your faculty and your communities.

Please notify Kelly Riley, my Education Policy Liaison, at 601-359-2528 if you will be able to accept this invitation. I look forward to seeing you soon.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM/klr

October 15, 2001

Dr. Aubrey Lucas, President
University of Southern Mississippi
Box 5001
Hattiesburg, MS 39406

Dear Dr. Lucas:

I am writing to invite you to join me for lunch at the Governor's Mansion on Friday, November 9, at 11:30 am. It is my hope that this luncheon will give us an opportunity to discuss those things that are important to your university and to our state as a whole.

As our administration continues to look at ways in which we can provide more opportunity for our people, I feel that it is important to seek input from our local communities and our educational leaders. The insights that you bring and the messages that you carry from a daily interaction with local citizens and your students are very important as we work to develop policies that can improve the quality of life for our entire citizenry.

Please know that your presence at this luncheon is very important to me. I look forward to having you over for good food and a good discussion of those items that are important to your students, your faculty and your communities.

Please notify Kelly Riley, my Education Policy Liaison, at 601-359-2528 if you will be able to accept this invitation. I look forward to seeing you soon.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM/klr