

September 9, 2002

Dr. Clinton Bristow, President
Alcorn State University
1000 ASU Drive, #359
Alcorn State, MS 39096

Dear Dr. Bristow:

I am writing to invite you to join me for lunch at the Governor's Mansion on Monday, September 30, at 12:00 noon. It is my hope that this luncheon will give us an opportunity to discuss those things that are important to your college and to our state as a whole.

I feel that it is important to seek input from our local communities and our educational leaders as we continue to look at ways in which we can increase opportunities for Mississippians. The insights that you bring and the messages that you carry from a daily interaction with local citizens and your students are very important as we work to develop policies that can improve the quality of life for our entire citizenry. I look forward to having you over for good food and a good discussion of those items that are important to your students, your faculty and your communities.

Please notify Kelly Riley, my Education Policy Liaison, at 601-359-2528 if you will be able to accept this invitation. I look forward to seeing you soon.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM/klr

September 9, 2002

Dr. David L. Potter, President
Delta State University
Box A-1
Cleveland, MS 38733

Dear Dr. Potter:

I am writing to invite you to join me for lunch at the Governor's Mansion on Monday, September 30, at 12:00 noon. It is my hope that this luncheon will give us an opportunity to discuss those things that are important to your college and to our state as a whole.

I feel that it is important to seek input from our local communities and our educational leaders as we continue to look at ways in which we can increase opportunities for Mississippians. The insights that you bring and the messages that you carry from a daily interaction with local citizens and your students are very important as we work to develop policies that can improve the quality of life for our entire citizenry. I look forward to having you over for good food and a good discussion of those items that are important to your students, your faculty and your communities.

Please notify Kelly Riley, my Education Policy Liaison, at 601-359-2528 if you will be able to accept this invitation. I look forward to seeing you soon.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM/klr

September 9, 2002

Dr. Ronald Mason, Jr., President
Jackson State University
1400 J.R. Lynch Street
Jackson, MS 39217

Dear Dr. Mason:

I am writing to invite you to join me for lunch at the Governor's Mansion on Monday, September 30, at 12:00 noon. It is my hope that this luncheon will give us an opportunity to discuss those things that are important to your college and to our state as a whole.

I feel that it is important to seek input from our local communities and our educational leaders as we continue to look at ways in which we can increase opportunities for Mississippians. The insights that you bring and the messages that you carry from a daily interaction with local citizens and your students are very important as we work to develop policies that can improve the quality of life for our entire citizenry. I look forward to having you over for good food and a good discussion of those items that are important to your students, your faculty and your communities.

Please notify Kelly Riley, my Education Policy Liaison, at 601-359-2528 if you will be able to accept this invitation. I look forward to seeing you soon.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM/klr

September 9, 2002

Dr. Charles Lee, Interim President
Mississippi State University
P.O. Box 6018
Mississippi State, MS 39762

Dear Dr. Lee:

I am writing to invite you to join me for lunch at the Governor's Mansion on Monday, September 30, at 12:00 noon. It is my hope that this luncheon will give us an opportunity to discuss those things that are important to your college and to our state as a whole.

I feel that it is important to seek input from our local communities and our educational leaders as we continue to look at ways in which we can increase opportunities for Mississippians. The insights that you bring and the messages that you carry from a daily interaction with local citizens and your students are very important as we work to develop policies that can improve the quality of life for our entire citizenry. I look forward to having you over for good food and a good discussion of those items that are important to your students, your faculty and your communities.

Please notify Kelly Riley, my Education Policy Liaison, at 601-359-2528 if you will be able to accept this invitation. I look forward to seeing you soon.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM/klr

September 9, 2002

Dr. Claudia Limbert, President
Mississippi University for Women
Welty Hall, Suite 301
P.O. Box W-1600
Columbus, MS 39701

Dear Dr. Limbert:

I am writing to invite you to join me for lunch at the Governor's Mansion on Monday, September 30, at 12:00 noon. It is my hope that this luncheon will give us an opportunity to discuss those things that are important to your college and to our state as a whole.

I feel that it is important to seek input from our local communities and our educational leaders as we continue to look at ways in which we can increase opportunities for Mississippians. The insights that you bring and the messages that you carry from a daily interaction with local citizens and your students are very important as we work to develop policies that can improve the quality of life for our entire citizenry. I look forward to having you over for good food and a good discussion of those items that are important to your students, your faculty and your communities.

Please notify Kelly Riley, my Education Policy Liaison, at 601-359-2528 if you will be able to accept this invitation. I look forward to seeing you soon.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM/klr

September 9, 2002

Dr. Lester Newman, President
Mississippi Valley State University
14000 Highway 82 West
Box 7272
Itta Bena, MS 38941

Dear Dr. Newman:

I am writing to invite you to join me for lunch at the Governor's Mansion on Monday, September 30, at 12:00 noon. It is my hope that this luncheon will give us an opportunity to discuss those things that are important to your college and to our state as a whole.

I feel that it is important to seek input from our local communities and our educational leaders as we continue to look at ways in which we can increase opportunities for Mississippians. The insights that you bring and the messages that you carry from a daily interaction with local citizens and your students are very important as we work to develop policies that can improve the quality of life for our entire citizenry. I look forward to having you over for good food and a good discussion of those items that are important to your students, your faculty and your communities.

Please notify Kelly Riley, my Education Policy Liaison, at 601-359-2528 if you will be able to accept this invitation. I look forward to seeing you soon.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM/klr

September 9, 2002

Dr. Robert Khayat, Chancellor
University of Mississippi
331 Martindale
University, MS 38677

Dear Dr. Khayat:

I am writing to invite you to join me for lunch at the Governor's Mansion on Monday, September 30, at 12:00 noon. It is my hope that this luncheon will give us an opportunity to discuss those things that are important to your college and to our state as a whole.

I feel that it is important to seek input from our local communities and our educational leaders as we continue to look at ways in which we can increase opportunities for Mississippians. The insights that you bring and the messages that you carry from a daily interaction with local citizens and your students are very important as we work to develop policies that can improve the quality of life for our entire citizenry. I look forward to having you over for good food and a good discussion of those items that are important to your students, your faculty and your communities.

Please notify Kelly Riley, my Education Policy Liaison, at 601-359-2528 if you will be able to accept this invitation. I look forward to seeing you soon.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM/klr

September 9, 2002

Dr. Shelby Thames, President
University of Southern Mississippi
Box 5001
Hattiesburg, MS 39406

Dear Dr. Thames:

I am writing to invite you to join me for lunch at the Governor's Mansion on Monday, September 30, at 12:00 noon. It is my hope that this luncheon will give us an opportunity to discuss those things that are important to your college and to our state as a whole.

I feel that it is important to seek input from our local communities and our educational leaders as we continue to look at ways in which we can increase opportunities for Mississippians. The insights that you bring and the messages that you carry from a daily interaction with local citizens and your students are very important as we work to develop policies that can improve the quality of life for our entire citizenry. I look forward to having you over for good food and a good discussion of those items that are important to your students, your faculty and your communities.

Please notify Kelly Riley, my Education Policy Liaison, at 601-359-2528 if you will be able to accept this invitation. I look forward to seeing you soon.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM/klr

September 9, 2002

Dr. Thomas Layzell, Commissioner of Higher Education
Institutions of Higher Learning
3825 Ridgewood Road
Jackson, MS 39211

Dear Dr. Layzell:

I am writing to invite you to join me for lunch at the Governor's Mansion on Monday, September 30, at 12:00 noon. It is my hope that this luncheon will give us an opportunity to discuss those things that are important to our colleges and to our state as a whole.

I feel that it is important to seek input from our local communities and our educational leaders as we continue to look at ways in which we can increase opportunities for Mississippians. The insights that our college presidents bring and the messages that they carry from a daily interaction with local citizens and their students are very important as we work to develop policies that can improve the quality of life for our entire citizenry. I look forward to having you and the presidents over for good food and a good discussion of those items that are important to our students, our faculties and our communities.

Please notify Kelly Riley, my Education Policy Liaison, at 601-359-2528 if you will be able to accept this invitation. I look forward to seeing you soon.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM/klr