As stated in yesterday's memo on JMG, Doyle Owens, Interim JMG Director, offered to meet with you for ten minutes prior to the meeting to answer any questions. When he dropped the attached notebook off today for your review prior to tomorrow's meeting, he clarified that he had meant to request an appointment to meet with you to discuss your chairing the board of directors. I told him that I would convey his request to you. According to Owens, governors chair the boards in a majority of states that have state programs.

Owens offered to speak to you by phone or in person prior to tomorrow's meeting. He may be reached at 978-1711.
