Talking Points

- As a result of the $930 million Nissan facility locating in our state, today we have the opportunity to once again improve Mississippi's economy.
- Today, we have the opportunity to create more, higher paying jobs for the people of our state.
- Today, we are in search of Mississippi companies who can serve as suppliers to Nissan.
- Nissan has asked for our assistance in notifying more than 41,000 Mississippi companies that may qualify as suppliers for Nissan or their primary supplier companies.
- We are traveling the state today to let every person – every business know about this tremendous opportunity.

- We are also asking Mississippi Mayors and Supervisors to help us identify companies or individuals who may qualify.
- We want Mississippi companies – Mississippi people - to have the best chance possible to apply as suppliers for Nissan or their primary supplier companies.
- We are looking for production (or manufacturing) and non-production (or non-manufacturing) suppliers.
- That means, businesses that supply services and supplies ranging from auto parts, to equipment, and laundry services to plumbing supplies.
- Nissan's application deadline is Monday, January 29, 2001, and we want to make sure that every person, and every business in Mississippi has the chance to apply.
- If you, or someone you know might benefit from this opportunity, you can get detailed information and an application from the Mississippi and Nissan website at – www.MississippiandNissan.com or from the Governor's website at www.governor.state.ms.us.

- Information and applications are also available at Mississippi Development Authority regional offices across the state.
- These offices are located in Senatobia, Tupelo, Greenwood, Meridian, Summit, Hattiesburg and Biloxi.
- Nissan is looking for quality services and quality products.
- Mississippi businesses fit that criteria perfectly.
- This is a terrific opportunity for Mississippians to grow and improve their businesses – right here at home.
- Mississippi companies serving Mississippi companies.
- It is a tremendous opportunity for the people of our state to create better lives for themselves and for their families.

- The opportunity for more, good jobs for our people is here.
- We encourage you to seize this great opportunity!!
