

A Proclamation
By Governor Ronnie Musgrove

WHEREAS, Drs. Paul and Susan May have proven themselves to be dedicated, loyal, hardworking, participating parents with the Hattie Casey Elementary School Parent and Teachers Association (Casey PTA) Hinds County, Jackson, Mississippi; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Paul May was assigned the Herculean task of developing and implementing plans for a new playground for the use and benefit of all students at Casey Elementary; and

WHEREAS, upon learning of the task assigned to her husband, Dr. Susan May without any reservation, assisted her husband in accomplishing this task by recruiting parents, friends, relatives and co-workers, to assist in the construction of said playground; and

WHEREAS, the Casey PTA Board voted unanimously to recognize the efforts of Drs. Paul and Susan May by dedicating the newly constructed playground in their honor; and

WHEREAS, on behalf of the children enrolled in the public schools of the State of Mississippi, we wish to express our sincere appreciation for the dedication, commitment and service by Drs. Paul and Susan May; and

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Ronnie Musgrove, Governor of the State of Mississippi, hereby proclaim April 26, 2003, as in the State of Mississippi to commend the dedication of the newly constructed playground at Hattie Casey Elementary in their honor, and wish them the greatest success in their future PTA endeavors.

DRS. PAUL AND SUSAN MAY DAY

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Mississippi to be affixed.

DONE in the City of Jackson, April 25, 2003, in the two hundred and twenty-sixth year of the United States of America.

RONNIE MUSGROVE
