

A Proclamation
By
Governor Ronnie Musgrove

WHEREAS, Shirley Ann Davis, wife of LTG Russell C. Davis, Chief, National Guard Bureau, was born in Aberdeen, Maryland, into a military family—her father was a career army noncommissioned officer and a Korean war veteran; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Davis has been heavily engaged in youth and family causes since her retirement from the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) in December 1998 after a distinguished thirty-year career with the federal government; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Davis travels extensively with General Davis as an ambassador of good will, as a lead volunteer in the National Guard Family Program; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Davis is also a spokesperson for the National Guard Youth Challenge Program—she meets with National Guard members and their families, taking an active role listening to their concerns and seeking appropriate ways to have them addressed; and

WHEREAS, her passions for her family and promoting the National Guard Family Program at every opportunity have been an inspiration for all who have known her—the extraordinary accomplishments she has made both professionally and personally are excellent models for all young adults to follow:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Ronnie Musgrove, Governor of the State of Mississippi, hereby proclaim July 25, 2002, as in the State of Mississippi.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Mississippi to be affixed.

DONE in the City of Jackson, July 17, 2002, in the two hundred and twenty-sixth year of the United States of America.

RONNIE MUSGROVE
