

For Immediate Release

December 3, 2001

Contact: John Sewell

601-359-2916

Jackson, MS – Governor Ronnie Musgrove released the following statement today regarding the new security alert from the Office of Homeland Security:

“We have been in constant contact with the Office of Homeland Security since the September 11th attacks. We are ready at every level to respond to any threat to the people or property of the State of Mississippi.”