Democratic National Chairman Terence McAuliffe To Speak in Jackson Saturday Night

Jackson, MS – Democratic National Chairman Terence R. McAuliffe will be the keynote speaker for the Mississippi Democratic Party's annual Jefferson-Jackson Day Dinner on Saturday, July 28, 2001. The dinner will begin at 7:00pm at the Crowne Plaza in downtown Jackson.

McAuliffe has been involved in politics since he was a young man in Syracuse, New York. He has worked with the Democratic Party in a variety of positions since the early 1980s, including serving as Finance Director for both the Democratic National Committee and the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee.

In 1988, he joined the Democratic National Committee as a Managing Trustee. Since then he has served as Ambassador and Commissioner General to the 1993 International Exposition in Korea, as Co-Chair of the 1997 Presidential Inaugural Committee, and as Chairman of the 2000 Democratic National Convention.

McAuliffe lives in McLean, Virginia, with his wife and four children.
