

For Immediate Release
September 11, 2002

Contact: John Sewell
601-359-2916

Governor Ronnie Musgrove released the following statement today:

“It is our hope that the legislature will move forward and address the healthcare crisis facing the people of Mississippi. Once that has happened, we will then be able to address general civil justice reform.”

###