

For Immediate Release

December 30, 2002

Contact: John Sewell

601-359-2916

Governor Ronnie Musgrove released the following statement today regarding Senator Terry Burton:

“My focus is on making sure our children have a good education, and our people have access to good jobs. I have consistently worked to spend within our means, and for a fair and balanced business climate for Mississippi. That’s consistent with my common-sense, conservative philosophy, and it’s a philosophy I believe I share with the people of this state.”

###