State Inmate Dies at Central Mississippi Correctional Facility

Pearl - State inmate Larry D. Jackson, MDOC #R8013A, died early Monday morning on June 24 at the Central Mississippi Correctional Facility. A provisional autopsy report indicates that Jackson, a 49-year old black male, died of a combination of hypertensive heart disease and coronary heart disease. Jackson was serving a 14-year sentence for manslaughter from Washington County, Mississippi. The official cause of Jackson's death is pending the completion of findings of an autopsy, which was performed in accordance with state law.
