Restitution Center Residents Escape from Center

Jackson – Hinds County Restitution Center residents Jeremy James Page and Rasool Allen escaped last night from the Mississippi Department of Corrections Hinds County Restitution Center on Gallatin Street. According to MDOC officials, both men jumped the fence at the center and left on foot around 7:50 p.m.

Authorities are searching for Page and Allen, both 22-year old black males with brown eyes and black hair. Page was serving a 5-year probation sentence for possession of cocaine in Adams county and Allen was serving a 5-year probation sentence for burglary of a non-residence in Lamar county.

Anyone with any information or sightings of Page or Allen should contact local law enforcement.
