Governor Appoints 16th Judicial District Chancery Judge

Jackson, Miss.- Governor Ronnie Musgrove today announced his appointment of Jaye A. Bradley to the position of 16th Judicial District Chancery Judge. Bradley replaces Judge William Myers who was appointed by the Governor to the Court of Appeals.

Bradley received her Bachelor of Science from The University of Southern Mississippi and her Juris Doctor from the University of Mississippi School of Law. She is currently an Associate Attorney for Currie, Johnson, Griffin, Gaines & Myers, P.A, and resides in Lucedale.

Bradley has also served as Staff Attorney to Circuit Court for the Mississippi Supreme Court and as District Attorney for Jackson, George & Greene Counties and Pascagoula. She was a member of the South Carolina State Bar and is a member of the Mississippi State Bar.

She is active in her community as a member of the Gautier Rotary Club, Pascagoula Noon Lions Club and the Order of the Eastern Star Pascagoula Chapter. Bradley also serves on the Administrative Board of the First United Methodist Church of Lucedale.

“Jaye has an established a diverse background of work experience in both South Carolina and Mississippi,” said Governor Musgrove. “That experience will serve the people of the 16th Judicial District well.”
