DevotionsPsalm 44:17

All this has come upon us;
But we have not forgotten You,
Nor have we dealt falsely with Your covenant.=20

Listen to the words of this sin riddled repentant king of Israel, king = David. The above verses went into great lengths to reveal the detail of = their punishment. A heart in subjection to the heavenly Father will bow = in humility under such punishment and not forget God or His covenant. = Notice David said, "WE have not forgotten You." He reached out to = include his fellowman in his approach to God. These same fellows had = just been persecuting him over his great sin. This king, full of = compassion, spoke in behalf of the nation he was leading, both good and = bad.=20

False dealings get us into trouble here in this life. How much more do = spiritual false dealings impact our lives? God cut a covenant with man. =
That covenant is based on rules that even God chooses to lives by.=20

Double standards are a false deal. One set of rules for you, another set = of rules for everyone else. One set of rules for your family, another = set of rules for other families. One set of rules for your business, = another for everybody else=92s business. Double standards. False deals. =
We want mercy extended to us, but we want judgment dished out to others. =

False deals are a stench in God=92s nostrils. You want mercy? Give = out mercy.

In The Master=92s Service,

Bo Sullivan
