Psalm 40:12

For innumerable evils have surrounded me;
My iniquities have overtaken me, so that I am not able to look up;
They are more than the hairs of my head;
Therefore my heart fails me.

There's not many Christians alive today who could or who would make a statement like this. I want to remind ya'll who wrote this under = inspiration of the Holy Spirit, the anointed King David, a man after = God's own heart, he was the author.=20

He wasn't able to count the number of iniquities he had committed they = were so many. Wow! Sounds like David understood something about how many = ways we offend and sin against God in thought, word, and deed. To make = the statement, "they are more than the hairs of my head," shows me his = level of great honesty. There's no sense in us lying about it, adding = yet another sin to the pile. Sin will surround a soul and press it down = so that one cannot look up and it will cause the heart to fail, or = faint.=20

Hang on though, he's not through talking to God. We'll discover more = balance in the verses to come.=20

In The Master's Service,

Bo Sullivan
